VOL. LV — OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 9, 1902 — NO. 85

PRESIDENT WELL RECEIVED BY THE PEOPLE IN THE SOUTH.

MAKES A STIRRING ADDRESS, IN WHICH HE PAYS HIS RESPECTS TO THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS—PRESENTATION OF A SWORD.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 9.—This is "President's Day" at the Exposition. The events of the day began with a grand procession through the principal streets of Charleston and afterwards there were speeches in the Exposition Auditorium, the presentation of a sword by the President to Major Micah Jenkins, a luncheon at the Woman's Building, and inspection of the grounds and buildings. The parade was the most imposing that Charleston has ever seen. Beside the President and distinguished visitors, United States Artillerymen, United States Marines and Jackies, there were soldiers from various States and cadets from two military academies.

THE PROCESSION.

The procession moved from the St. John Hotel promptly at 10 o'clock and proceeded up Meeting street to Calhoun, through Calhoun to Rutledge avenue, thence northward to Grove street and to the Exposition gates. The march was continued through the Grove street gate and then around the Court of Palaces. The Presidential party was driven directly to the Exposition Auditorium, where the President reviewed the troops from a platform erected at that point. The President's salute of twenty-one guns was fired by the German artillery on the entrance of the President into the Exposition grounds.

REVIEWED BY PRESIDENT.

At noon the President proceeded from the reviewing stand into the auditorium, where the formal ceremonies occurred. Addresses were made by Captain F. T. Wagener, President of the South Carolina Interstate and West Indian Exposition Companies, Governor McSweeney of South Carolina, Governor Aycock of North Carolina, Mayor Smyth of Charleston and President Roosevelt.

the President of the United States.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

President Roosevelt spoke as follows:

"It is to me a peculiar privilege to speak here in your beautiful city. My mother's people were from Georgia; but before they came to Georgia, before the Revolution, in the days of colonial rule, they dwelt for nearly a century in South Carolina; and therefore I can claim your State as mine by inheritance no less than by the stronger and nobler right which makes each foot of American soil in a sense the property of all Americans.

Charleston is not only a typical Southern city; it is also a city whose history teems with events which link themselves to American history as a whole. In the early colonial days Charleston was the outpost of our people against the Spaniard in the South. In the days of the Revolution there occurred here some of the events which vitally affected the outcome of the struggle for independence, and which impressed themselves most deeply on the popular mind. It was here that the tremendous, terrible drama of the Civil War opened.

"With delicate and thoughtful courtesy you originally asked me to come to this Exposition on the birthday of Abraham Lincoln. The invitation not only showed a fine generosity and manliness in you, my hosts, but also emphasized what hardly anything else could have emphasized—how completely we are a united people. The wounds left by the great Civil War, incomparably the greatest war of modern times, have healed, and its memories are now priceless heritages of honor alike to the North and to the South. The devotion, the self-sacrifice, the steadfast resolution and lofty daring, the high devotion to the right as each man saw it, whether Northener or Southerner—all these qualities of the men and women of the early sixties now shine luminous and brilliant before our eyes, while the mists of anger and hatred that once dimmed them have passed away forever.

ALL CAN GLORY ALIKE

"All of us, North and South, can glory alike in the valor of the men who wore the blue and of the men who wore the grey. These were iron times, and only iron men could fight to the terrible finish the giant struggle between the hosts of Grant and Lee. To us of the present day and to our children and children's children, the valiant deeds, the high endeavor and abnegation of self shown in that struggle by those who took part therein will remain forever to mark the level to which we in our turn must rise whenever the nation's need may come.

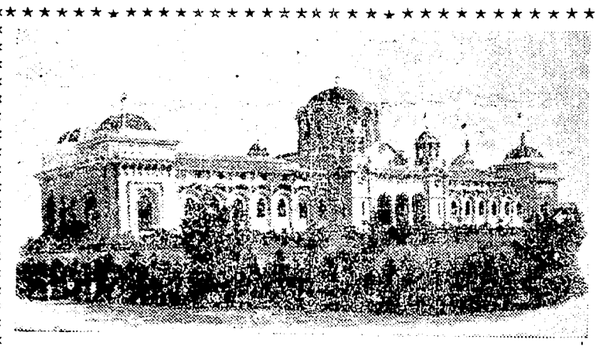

"When four years ago this nation was compelled to face a foreign foe the completeness of the reunion became instantly and strikingly evident. The war was not one which called for the exercise of more than an insignificant fraction of our strength, and the strain put upon us was slight, indeed, compared with the results. But it was a satisfactory thing to see the way in which the sons of the soldier of the Union and the soldier of the Confederacy leaped eagerly forward, emulous to show in brotherly rivalry the qualities which had won renown for their fathers, the men of the great war. It was my good fortune to serve under an ex-Confederate general, gallant old Joe Wheeler, who commanded the cavalry division at Santiago.

"In my regiment there were certainly as many men whose fathers had served in the Southern as there were men whose fathers had served in the Northern army. Among the captains there was opportunity to promote but one to field rank. The man who was singled out for this promotion because of conspicuous gallantry in the field, was the son of a Confederate General and was himself a citizen of this, the Palmetto State, and no American officer could wish to march to battle beside a more loyal, gallant and absolutely fearless comrade than my former captain and Major, your fellow citizen, Micah Jenkins.

THE EX-CONFEDERATE.

"A few months ago, owing to the enforced absence of the Governor of the Philippines, it became necessary to nominate a vice Governor to take his place—one of the most important places in our Government, at this time.

DR. STEBBINS PASSES AWAY AT CAMBRIDGE

Eminent as Unitarian Divine and Successor to Starr King.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—News was received here today that Rev. Horatio Stebbins, the eminent Unitarian divine, died at Cambridge, Mass., last night. He had been in failing health for a long time and sometime ago retired from active preaching. Mr. Stebbins was for more than forty years pastor of the First Unitarian Church of San Francisco, the church founded and made famous by Thomas Starr King.

Dr. Stebbins was an able successor to Starr King, being an eloquent and scholarly man.

He was a conspicuous figure in the life of this city for many years, being prominent in all public movements till the infirmities of advancing age compelled a cessation of his activities.

Recently Dr. Stebbins returned to Cambridge, the home of his youth, to spend his declining years in the scholastic shades so congenial to his mind.

With Dr. Stebbins at the time of his death were his wife, his daughter Lucy, Horatio Stebbins Jr., and the Rev. Frederick Stebbins, pastor of a Unitarian Church at Cambridge. Dr. Stebbins had gone East some time ago in the hope that the change would benefit his health, which had been poor for the past few years. Some time ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never fully recovered.

Age and the long strain of his ministerial duties had weakened a constitution never too rugged.

Dr. Stebbins was a man who took an active interest in the welfare of the city, State and nation. He was one of the original trustees of Stanford University.

Memorial services will be held for their late pastor by the congregation of the First Unitarian Church next Sunday.

CHINESE EXCLUSION IN SENATE.

Bill Is Favorably Reported by the Committee on Immigration.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—When the Senate convened today Mr. Fairbanks of Indiana reported favorably from the Committee on Immigration the Chinese Exclusion Bill passed by the House. It was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Patterson offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the Secretary of the Treasury for certain regulations regarding the exclusion of Chinese.

At the conclusion of routine business consideration of the Chinese Exclusion Bill was resumed. Mr. Gallinger of New Hampshire addressing the Senate in opposition to the measure. He declared that the bill was "uncalled for, unnecessary, unwise and un-American. It is harsh in its provisions, unjust in its definitions and clearly in contravention of our solemn treaty obligations."

He said the proposed legislation "was narrow, bigoted and indefensible."

"We are asked to support it," said he, "because of certain alleged abuses in California and on the Pacific Coast." He added that had not the Senators from the Pacific States favored the measure, "it might well be attributed to the fertile brain of some sand lot agitator."

BILL IS REPORTED.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The Senate Committee on Immigration today decided to report the House Chinese Exclusion Bill to the Senate. This action was taken without any definite intention of substituting that bill for the Senate bill, but with the view of making it available for that purpose if so desired. No opportunity was afforded for careful comparison of the two measures, but members of the committee expressed the opinion, after a cursory scrutiny of the House Bill, that the two are very much alike on all essential points. The committee suggested no changes in the House Bill.

SHE BEAT HER RIVAL TO DEATH.

WOMAN MADE LOVE TO HUSBAND AND WIFE BEAT HER OVER THE HEAD WITH A CANE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Mrs. Jennie Eppinger was arrested this morning and is detained at police headquarters with a charge of murder hanging over her. She is believed to be responsible for the death of Margaret Edwards, a young woman of 20 years, who died at an early hour this morning, from, it is believed, a beating which she received at the hands of Mrs. Eppinger last evening.

The two women had been drinking heavily and returned to their home in a maudlin condition.

When Mr. Eppinger came home Mrs. Edwards, according to Mrs. Eppinger's story, began to make violent love to him and this so aroused Mrs. Eppinger's anger that she beat the Edwards woman over the head with a cane in a terrible manner.

Mrs. Edwards became unconscious, but recovered her senses later and went to the home of a woman friend, who put her to bed. She began to sink rapidly at an early hour this morning and before medical aid could be summoned, died.

Mrs. Eppinger has not been charged with murder, the police awaiting the result of the Coroner's inquest.

Mrs. Eppinger is the wife of Morris A. Eppinger of 529 Howard street.

CHARGES NOT TO BE HEARD

BRITISH WAR OFFICE WILL NOT PAY ANY ATTENTION TO RUMORS.

LONDON, April 9. — The charges made against the conduct of British troops in South Africa, attributed to General Delarey, have not been brought to the notice of the War Office and will be ignored unless a question on the subject is asked in the House of Commons. Even in this event it is not probable that any action will be taken unless a responsible authority for such charges is made in a more definite form.

It is pointed out that if General Delarey had wished to make such allegations, he had ample opportunity to communicate them to Lord Kitchener, who, it is believed at the War Office, would have notified the home government of the fact, which he has not done. The War Office officials ridicule the idea that the charges contain an iota of truth and are inclined to assign their origin to purely continental sources. The allegations have certainly not created a ripple of interest in War Office circles and even the pro-Boer press, members of the House of Commons and others appear to attach small importance to the matter. General Delarey's courteous treatment of General Methuen, it is asserted, makes it difficult to believe that the Boer Commandant was personally responsible for the charges, which include persecution of Delarey's own family.

BURGLARS BREAK INTO A STATION

CUT OPEN THE MAIL BAGS IN THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC STATION.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., April 9.—Sometime this morning between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock, burglars broke into the Southern Pacific baggage room at Kern City and although they cut open four mail sacks and slashed the tops from a number of valises, it is stated that nothing of value was taken. There were no registered packages in the mail which was for Kern City and Bakersfield and but one letter was torn open by the thieves. This contained nothing of value.

ONE MORE CHANCE FOR FREEDOM

WOMAN WHO IS ACCUSED OF KILLING HUSBAND GIVEN A NEW TRIAL.

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 9.—The Supreme Court today reversed the verdict and ordered a new trial in the Hossack murder case. The defendant, Margaret Hossack, is serving a life sentence for the alleged murder of her husband, a wealthy farmer, who resided near Indianola. His head was split open with an axe two years ago. He was asleep at the time of the murder and his wife was by his side. She claimed the crime was committed by burglars.

BLOSSOM FAIR AT LOS GATOS

MANY STRANGERS ARE SEEN IN THE SANTA CLARA CITY.

SAN JOSE, Cal., April 9.—The second day of the blossom festival brought crowds of people by train and private conveyance to Los Gatos, where ample entertainment was provided by the local committees. The day was perfect and the ride through the orchards was enjoyed to the utmost. Strangers had an opportunity of seeing the valley in all its beauty.

Tomorrow Campbell will have a festival, for which an unusually attractive program has been provided. This town is six miles from San Jose and is situated in the heart of the orchard region.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE S. P.

ALL THE OLD OFFICERS WILL BE RE-ELECTED BY THE DIRECTORS.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The annual meeting of the Southern Pacific Company was held in this city today. All the retiring directors were elected except Charles M Hays, who resigned and was succeeded by former Judge William D. Cornish. The total vote cast at the meeting was 1,473,892 shares out of a total of 1,978,271. The new board will probably meet tomorrow and it is understood that all the present officers, including President E. H. Harriman, will be re-elected.

HE SUES THE MODERN WOODMEN

WANTS $50,000 DAMAGES FOR INJURIES RECEIVED AT AN INITIATION.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 9.—Charles Lewis of Berlin, Ottawa county, who has brought suit against the Modern Woodmen Society for $50,000 damages because of injuries alleged to have been received in an initiation into the society, which necessitated the amputation of a leg, has been removed to his home in a dying condition. In the event of his death his heirs will take up the suit against the Woodmen.

SPECULATOR FALLS ON STEPS OF HOME

NEW YORK, April 9.—George B. Mead, a Wall Street speculator, was found unconscious today on the steps of the apartment house, 149 West Sixteenth street, where he lived, and died several hours later. Mead was at one time a prominent broker in Philadelphia.

BOTH KILLED IN A BOILER EXPLOSION

GRINNELL, Ia., April 9.—Frank Mayers, Dudley Boyd and James Shaffer were instantly killed in a boiler explosion at a mill in Peoria, a small town south of this place. The three victims were literally blown to fragments. James Carter, the proprietor of the mill, sustained serious injuries.

HE ROBBED WIDOW AND HER CHILDREN.

GEO. MOREHEAD OF THE OAKLAND CAFE SWINDLES MRS. ENNIS OUT OF $1,900 AND THEN DISAPPEARS.

After swindling a poor widow out of every cent she possessed, George Morehead, one of the proprietors of the Oakland Cafe, disappeared last Monday and numerous creditors are now mourning his departure. There is hardly a merchant of any importance in the city who was not made a victim of the wily Morehead.

HE IS MISSING.

The missing man was for five years the head steward of the Palace Bakery and Wagner & Desbh, the proprietors of that restaurant placed every confidence in him. Last month he induced Mrs. William Ennis to invest $1,900, all she possessed, in the Oakland Cafe and they became equal partners in the business, although Morehead had not invested a cent. It was a case of the widow furnishing the capital and Morehead the experience. Mrs. Ennis trusted him implicitly and he assumed the entire management of the concern.

HE BECAME ILL.

A few weeks ago, however, Morehead became ill he went to San Francisco for treatment. While he was away Mrs. Ennis learned several things of which she had had no previous knowledge. Bills, which he had told her had been paid, were presented and a short investigation proved that he had been systematically swindling her. He returned from San Francisco last Wednesday and promised to make good her loss, but on the following Monday he disappeared and his whereabouts is now unknown. Every effort to locate him has been unsuccessful.

WIDOW OF A HERO.

Mrs. Ennis is the widow of the late William Ennis, the brave fireman who lost his life last August while at a fire. While fighting the flames in a burning building he was overcome by the smoke and was carried out to die. Mrs. Ennis received $2,000 insurance from a local lodge of Woodmen, and it was this money that she put into the Oakland Cafe.

"I don't know whether I will be able to save anything or not," said Mrs. Ennis today. "I put $1,900 into the business and took Mr. Morehead in as a partner, because of his long experience as a restauranteur. I did not know him very well, but he was highly recommended to me by people whom I trusted and I had absolute confidence in him. I have placed the entire matter in the hands of my attorney, George Samuels, in the hope that he might save something for me."

THOUGHT IT WOULD PAY.

It was expected by every one that the Oakland Cafe would become one of the best paying restaurants in the city. The proprietors first bought the old Philadelphia Restaurant and had it refitted. Then Morehead laid in a stock of supplies. He went to Theo. Gler for wines and liquors, he bought cigars from Kuertzel and Councilman Robert Boyer; from Goldberg, Bowen & Co. he ordered his groceries, and he patronized freely the produce men on Eleventh street. All these merchants are "among the creditors," and all are anxious to interview the missing restauranteur. A meeting of the creditors to discuss the condition of affairs will be held this afternoon or tomorrow.

CONTEST FOR PAPAL DELEGATE.

CARDINAL MARTINELLI'S SUCCESSOR NARROWS DOWN TO TWO MEN.

ROME, April 9.—The contest for the appointment of a successor to Cardinal Martinelli as Papal Delegate in the United States has apparently narrowed down to two candidates—Archbishop Falconio, the Papal Delegate in Canada, and Mgr. Zalinski, formerly Papal Delegate in the East Indies and secretary of Cardinal Lederhowski. The chances of the former are considered to be the best, as it has been shown that he has very much diplomatic ability and is a man of profound learning. The decision will be delayed because the consistory at which Cardinal Martinelli will finally gain the red hat has been postponed from June to October.

KING LEOPOLD IS MOBBED BY PARTY OF SOCIALISTS.

They Surrounded His Auto and Waved Red Flags in His Face.

BRUSSELS, April 9.—King Leopold was mobbed by Socialists this afternoon on his arrival here from Biarritz. The meeting between the Socialists and the King was quite accidental, but it was none the less unpleasant for His Majesty, whose automobile was surrounded by excited Socialists, who shouted "Long Live the Republic," "Long Live Universal Suffrage," and waved red flags in the King's face.

The Socialists had collected at the railroad station to bid farewell to the members of a delegation of Spanish Republican Deputies, who had attended the Socialistic gatherings here and who had participated in last night's demonstrations. The police this morning informed the Spaniards that they must leave Brussels forthwith and the delegates were escorted to the station by a large gathering of Socialists bearing red flags. The king happened to arrive at the same time and had difficulty in getting his automobile out of the crowd, but he finally found an opening and passed his pursuers.

PEACE MAY COME SOON.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE STILL IN PROGRESS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, April 9.—The Associated Press understands that the peace negotiations are progressing satisfactorily, so far as the Transvaalers are concerned, but the latest advices indicate that there is small probability of the Free Staters surrendering in a body. The negotiations thus far have been mainly explanation of British intentions. It has been plain to the leaders that their surender will not entail banishment and this has been a potent influence. The leading Transvaalers urge their allies to arrange peace. The inner circles of the War Office believe if the present indications are fulfilled and the Transvaalers are to surrender, the back bone of Boer resistance will be broken and that the Free Staters' opposition will soon be overcome.

RHODES' REMAINS TAKEN TO FARM

Dimmick, it was announced yesterday, was to have been taken to San Francisco today, but he has been allowed to remain in the County Jail in Oakland until tomorrow.

JOHNSON AGAIN AT THE HEAD OF POLICE.

Mayor Barstow President of Board of Public Works.

TURNER DID NOT WANT TO BE CHAIRMAN

The Board of Public Works and the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, both of which bodies are composed of the Mayor, City Attorney and City Engineer, reorganized this morning for the ensuing year by the election of a president and secretary.

When the Police and Fire Commissioners met, Mayor Barstow nominated City Attorney Johnson for re-election to the Presidency. Johnson declared that he would rather see City Engineer Turner in the chair. The latter demurred, saying that he could not fill the office so ably as Johnson.

An "Alphonse and Gaston" dialogue followed, but Johnson gave in before the usual disaster overtook them, and he was declared elected.

When the Board of Works met, Turner nominated the Mayor for the presidency, and the latter tried to "pass the buck" to the City Engineer, but he failed and was elected by the votes of Turner and Johnson.

R. F. Jackson, who has done efficient service under two administrations, was re-elected secretary of both bodies.

ROUTINE WORK.

At the meeting of the Police and Fire Commissioners this morning, Chief of Police Hodgkins reported that forty-two warrants and 214 subpoenas had been served during March. The number of prisoners on hand March 1st was 36 and the average number a day was 41. The number of persons provided with lodgings was 118. The number of meals served was 2,589, at 5 1-2 cents a meal. The report was filed.

City Treasurer Taylor reported that he had collected $112 from the police force during March for the Police Relief and Pension Fund.

Charles Cook was appointed extraman of Engine Company No. 5, to fill the vacancy created by the dismissal of William Kloos. The latter was dismissed for drunkenness.

THIRD WARD CLUB ELECTS DELEGATES

The Third Ward Republican Club held a meeting last night at 1321 Fourteenth street for the purpose of selecting delegates to the San Jose Convention. As usual, there was a good attendance and considerable interest was manifested in the proceedings. Councilman George Fitzgerald, president of the club, occupied the chair. Owing to the illness of Secretary Daniel J. Mullins, Frank Ahern officiated in his stead. After a brief discussion it was agreed on motion of Frank McKiernan, seconded by Oscar George, that the club elect a delegate-at-large and nine delegates and nine alternates delegates, that being the number which the club's membership entitles it to. Those chosen were: Delegate-at-large, George Fitzgerald; delegates, Daniel J. Mullins, B. C. Cuvellier, Frank Ahern, Frank McKiernan, Oscar George, William Gross, C. M. White, John P. Mullins, T. J. Allen. Alternate delegates, Joseph Raymond, William Owens, Robert Walsh, A. E. Johnstone, J. F. Stewart, Henry Eaton, A. Massimo, Conrad Thaler and George Darcey.

LAUGHED WHEN HUSBAND DIED

STRANGE CONDUCT OF MRS. WAY AT HER CONSORT'S FUNERAL.

The testimony of Mrs. Jennie MacKenzie in the Maria Way will contest this morning included, among other things, a word-picture of the scene at the home of the Ways in Alameda November 9, 1899, on the occasion of the funeral of the husband of the decedent, which sent a thrill through the courtroom, which was filled with ladies.

"I was shocked at the spectacle," said Mrs. MacKenzie. "The remains lay in a casket in the parlor. Mrs. Way was not beside them. I went through the house to find her and condole with her. I discovered her in the dining-room. I don't know whether her mourning robe had yet arrived, but she was trying on a bonnet. She was laughing out loud as if she did not know that her husband lay dead in the next room. She laughed at us, laughed at her gray hairs and then laughed and smiled at her bonnet. She pulled the bonnet one way and another and then looked in the glass to see how she appeared in it. I never saw anything so unfeeling and I was surprised. There was not a tear in her eyes. It was painful to be near her.

"Did Mrs. Way take a last farewell of the remains of her husband before the funeral?" witness was asked by Attorney Church.

"It is my impression she did not," replied Mrs. Mackenzie.

Witness then detailed a conversation which she had with Mr. and Mrs. Way relative to the welfare of their daughter, Ada Way, who is now in the insane asylum. It was brought out for the purpose of showing the opinion entertained by Mrs. Way of T. W. Jackson, whom she later appointed as the executor of the will.

"One day," said the witness, "I was talking with Mr. and Mrs. Way. They expressed themselves as solicitious of the welfare of their daughter and stated that they did not know whom to get to take care of her. They said that Mr. Richardson was not the right man. They used to call him 'Johnny Richards,' but they got to dislike him because of something they heard from Mrs. Aitken. I asked them how they liked Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Way said that he had not an honorable career, and that he had had a dishonorable business failure. She would not let him have control of her daughter. They then asked me if I thought a woman could be appointed to look after their daughter. I told them that I did not know."

PRESIDENT IS WELL RECEIVED.

I nominated as vice Governor an ex-Confederate, General Luke Wright, of Tennessee. It is therefore an ex-Confederate who now stands as the exponent of this Government and this people in that great group of islands in the Eastern seas, over which the American flag floats. General Wright has taken a leading part in the work of steadily defining order and peace out of the bloody chaos in which we found the islands. He is now taking a leading part, not merely in upholding the honor of the flag, by making it respected as the symbol of our power, but still more in upholding its honor by unwearied labor for the establishment of order and liberty, of law-creating, law-abiding civil government, under its folds.

"The progress which has been made under General Wright and those like him has been marvelous. In fact, a letter of the General's the other day seems that he considered there was far more warfare about the Philippines in this country than there was warfare in the Philippines themselves.

"It is an added proof of the completeness of the reunion of our country that one of the foremost men has been instrumental in driving forward the great work for civilization and humanity in the Philippines has been a man who in the Civil War fought with distinction in a uniform of Confederate gray.

"If ever the need comes in the future the past has made abundantly evident the fact that from this time on Northerner and Southerner will, in war, know only the generous desire to strive how each can do the more effective service for the flag of our common country. The same thing is true in the endless work of peace, the never-ending work of building and sweeping the marvelous fabric of our industrial prosperity. The up-building of any part of our country is a benefit to the whole and every such effort as this to stimulate the resources and industries of a particular section is entitled to the heartiest support from every quarter of the Union. Thoroughly good nation work can be done only if each of us works hard for himself and at the same time keeps constantly in mind that we must work in conjunction with others."

ISLAND OF CUBA.

"Be it remembered, moreover, that after our three years' occupation of the island we turned it over to the Cubans in a better condition than it had ever been in all the centuries of Spanish rule. This has a direct bearing upon our own welfare. Cuba is so near to us that we can never be indifferent to misgovernment and disaster within its limits. The mere fact that our administration in the island has minimized the danger from the dreadful scourge of yellow fever, alike to Cuba and to ourselves, is sufficient to emphasize the community of interest between us. But there are other interests which bind us together. Cuba's position makes it necessary that her political relations with us should differ from her political relations with other powers. This fact has been formulated by us and accepted by the Cubans in the Platt amendments. It follows as a corrollary that where the Cubans have thus assumed a position of peculiar relationship to our political system they must similarly stand in a peculiar relationship to our economic system.

"We have rightfully insisted upon Cuba adopting toward us an attitude differing politically from that which she adopts toward any other power, and in return, as a matter of right, we must give to Cuba a different—that is, a better—position economically in her relations with us than we gave or give to other powers. This is the course dictated by sound policy, by a wise and far-sighted view of our own interest, and by the position we have taken during the past four years. We are a wealthy and powerful country, dealing with a much weaker one; and the contrast in wealth and strength makes it all the more our duty to deal with Cuba, as we have already dealt with her, in a spirit of large generosity.

LABOR AND CAPITAL.

"This is an era of great combinations of both labor and capital. In many ways these combinations have worked for good; but they must work under the law and the laws concerning them must be just and wise or they will inevitably do evil, and this applies as much to the richest corporation as to the most powerful labor union. Our laws must be wise, sane, healthy, conceived in the spirit of those who scorn the mere agitator, the mere inciter of class or sectional hatred; who wish justice for all men; who recognize the need of adhering so far as possible to the old American doctrine of giving the widest possible scope for the free exercise of individual initiative, and yet who recognize also that after combinations have reached a certain stage it is indispensable to the general welfare that the nation should exercise over them, resolutely, and with self-restraint, but firmly, the power of regulation.

"Above all, the administration of the Government, the enforcement of the laws must be fair and honest. The laws are not to be administered either in the interest of the poor man or the interest of the rich man. They are simply to be administered justly; in the interest of justice to each man, be he rich or poor—giving immunity to no violator, whatever form the violation may assume. Such is the obligation which every public servant takes, and to it he must be true under penalty of forfeiting the respect both of himself and his fellows."

SWORD PRESENTED.

Immediately after the addresses a handsome sword was presented to Major Micau Jenkins, the presentation being made by President Roosevelt. The sword was handed to the President by ex-Governor Hugh St. Thomason. With the conclusion of exercises at the auditorium, the Presidential party was escorted to the Woman's Building; from there they went to the South Carolina Building and made a tour of the great buildings in the court of palaces. Guard duty during the time of the President's visit was done entirely by the men of the U. S. Marine Corps from Camp Heyward, under Captain Leonard, U. S. M. C.

At 2 o'clock the President and party were taken to the Woman's Building, where a luncheon was served by the Woman's Board.

PARTIAL VICTORY FOR MRS. CLOUGH.

Judge Greene Will Deny the Motion For a Non-Suit.

SOME COMPLIMENTS FOR ATTORNEYS.

After six months of weary litigation a partial victory was won by the complainant this morning in the case of Mrs. Jane Clough against the Spring Valley Works in Judge Greene's branch of the Superior Court.

The petitioner was permitted to file her complaint, which was the second one presented.

The difference, however, between it and the first one filed is only technical, consisting in the main in the insertion of a few adjectives and adverbs which, it is claimed, set forth in a stronger manner the alleged rights in the premises of the complainant.

In the main, the complainant claimed that the Washington and Murray Township Water Company, which had for years been in the enjoyment of water for irrigating purposes, which it received from Alameda Creek and passed through a big ditch, had been deprived of the same by diversion on the part of the Spring Valley Water Works.

The quantity of water so diverted, as alleged, varied according to the season of the year, as did also the quantity of water claimed by the Washington and Murray Township Water Company, ranging according to the season from 7,000,000 to 15,000,000 gallons per day.

The complainant also asserted that the Spring Valley Works had secured control of a majority of the directors of the Township Water Company and controlled the latter organization to suit its purposes.

The court announced that he would overrule the demurrer which had been offered before, which would mean the denial of the motion for a non-suit, which had been made by the defendant.

Attorney Kellogg on behalf of the defendant asked for a little extension of time to make a new formal demurrer, as also to make a motion to strike out, and Judge Greene granted the request, paying as he did so, a warm compliment to the attorney for the courtesy he had shown to counsel on the other side.

Addressing Mr. Kellogg, Judge Greene said:

"You have been exceedingly courteous. In paying you a compliment for your courtesy, I desire to say that I never knew a case in which greater courtesy was shown to the gentlemen on the other side of the case. I am satisfied that Mr. Davis and his associates appreciated it. You must not be crowded. You ought to have time, and it will be understood that you will serve your demurrer on them Wednesday next and argue the motion to strike out on the following Friday.

The case was then continued until that time.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH IN SOUTH

PHOENIX, Arizona, April 8.—Mrs. Thomas Childs, wife of a rancher living near Gila Bend, was yesterday burned to death as the result of an explosion of kerosene. Her husband was away at the time and her three-year-old baby who was in the house was rescued by an Indian who chanced to be passing. The house was completely destroyed.

HAS NO INFORMATION REGARDING PEACE IN AFRICA.

LONDON, April 8.—After the Cabinet meeting today, A. J. Balfour, the Government leader, informed the Liberal leader, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in the House of Commons, that the government had no important information regarding the peace negotiations in South Africa.

STRIKE IN THE SOUTH.

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 8.—The situation in the strike of the cotton mill operatives was unchanged today, but at 6:30 this evening the lockout in the Augusta district goes into effect. The Manufacturers' Association held a meeting last night and decided to fight to the end. This means that there will not be a spindle turning in Augusta or the House Creek Valley tomorrow morning. Everything is quiet.

NEW TYPE PRESSES IDEAS

OAKLAND, CAL.

BRITT MAY GET A MATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Jimmy Britt will probably have an opportunity to try for championship honors within the next six weeks. The Yosemite Club's match-maker in New York wired yesterday to know the best weight Britt would make in a fight with Young Corbett. Britt wired back that he would do 131 pounds.

Since then no word has been received from New York, but it is not improbable that Corbett will accept Britt's weight, although it is several pounds heavier than he cares to go. The fact that the Corbett-Britt fight would be a great drawing card here will probably induce Corbett, however, to come West to meet the Olympic Club amateur.

If Corbett will not agree to 131 pounds Dave Sullivan or some other good man will be matched against him, unless Britt recedes from his ultimatum that 131 pounds is the best he can do.

SAYS REAL FIGHT IS NOW IN SIGHT

FRESNO, April 8.—The newly elected Board of Directors of the Raisin Growers' Association organized today with Robert Boot president; T. C. White, vice-president; A. L. Sayre of Madeira, secretary; D. D. Allison, treasurer, and A. V. Taylor of Hanford as chief inspector. For the present no general manager will be chosen. The board decided on the spirit of the by-law amendments not acted upon after the break up of the mass meeting yesterday upon the announcement of the elected directors to draw all equal salaries as directors and not the special ones for particular executive offices. Mr. Kearney, it is understood, will proceed to organize growers' packing houses in the various raisin districts. He has come out with an address to the growers in which he suggests an epitaph for the association and says that the campaign has only been a skirmish and that the real fight is now on.

OPIUM SMUGGLERS ARE ARRESTED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—The police today arrested John Gavin, a fireman on the steamer City of Puebla, and one Joseph Kirk, as they were riding on a street car toward Chinatown with 230 tins of opium in their possession. The authorities are of the opinion that the two men are members of an organized ring of smugglers who have been suspected of carrying on their nefarious trade at this port for some time past. A rigid investigation will be instituted by the customs authorities.

OSCAR LUNING A BIG REAL ESTATE BUYER

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Thomas Magee & Sons closed three large real estate deals yesterday, aggregating over $400,000. The largest of these was a purchase by Oscar T. Luning of Oakland for $151,000, of a lot for $133,000. The Yolo Mills property on the corner of Main and Mission streets, was sold by H. E. and Hartland Law to an unknown buyer. Dr. Hartland Law also sold to an unnamed buyer a lot on the corner of Mission and Annie streets, 56x120 feet, for $120,000.

CENTRAL BANK SUES THE YATES ESTATE

The Central Bank has brought suit against Lillie Thompson Yates, widow of the late C. R. Yates former cashier of this banking institution, for the purpose of securing possession of some notes and assignments of mortgages, nineteen in number, which are now held by the defendant as administratrix of the estate of the deceased. These assignments, the petitioner asserts did not belong to the late C. R. Yates and he had no property interest in them. They simply came into his possession as an officer of the bank and because of the confidential relations which he had with the bank, at the time of his death.

The petitioner sets forth that the mortgages and notes were given to secure money advanced by the bank.

WILL NOT MAKE AN INVESTIGATION

GRAND JURY NOT TO TAKE UP THE HAYWARDS OFFICIALS MATTER.

Secretary Patterson of the Grand Jury has been ordered to make out the pay-roll and mileage of that body for the time the members have served in that body. This means that the Grand Jury will adjourn Friday of this week, the time set for its next meeting, unless something now unforeseen, should take place. It is not thought likely that any indictments will be returned. There has been some talk of bringing certain dilatory payment of funds into the treasury at Haywards, and the dilatory presentation of claims, by officials, against that municipality, to the attention of the Grand Jury. Feeling on this subject, however, is less intense than it was when it was first aroused.

TENNESSEE DERBY WILL BE RUN THIS AFTERNOON.

Clear Day and a Fast Track for the Big Event in the South.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 8.—Clear, bracing weather and a fast track will be among the conditions of the racing at Montgomery Park this afternoon, for the Tennessee Derby. The race is at a mile and an eighth and at regular Derby weights. Six three-year-olds are expected to start, as follows:

Abe Frank (Coburn), 122.
Ed Austin, 112.
Louis Woods (Turner), 122.
Red Hook (T. O'Brien), 122.
Buccleuth (T. O'Neil), 118.
H. L. Coleman (J. Woods), 122.

Abe Frank and Ed Austin, the Bennett entry, will be a top heavy favorite in the betting, as Abe Frank is thought to hold all the others safe at the weight and distance. In the morning betting the entry is quoted at 1 to 5 and the others at 3 to 7 to 1.

Indications point to the largest attendance in the history of the track.

CHINESE PEOPLE ARE IN REVOLT

THEY REFUSE TO PAY THE HEAVY INDEMNITY IMPOSED BY GOVERNMENT.

TIEN TSIN, April 8.—Three Chinese troops and a number of Krupp guns have been dispatched to Southern Mongolia, where the people are in revolt against the severe indemnity taxation.

Several villages have been strongly fortified and their inhabitants are determined to fight. They say they are assured of the assistance of thirty thousand disaffected persons.

MARGARET GRAHAM SLASHES THROAT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Margaret Graham, the girl who gained so much notoriety through her connection with the Nora Fuller murder case, tried to commit suicide this afternoon at her mother's home at Sixth and Howard streets. Detective Tom Gibson wrenched a razor from her hand after she had slashed her throat once or twice. The cuts are not deep and will soon heal, according to the physicians who were called to attend her. The attempt at suicide is believed to be the result of a quarrel with her mother, although there is a suspicion in police circles that the Nora Fuller case may be at the bottom of the child's attempt upon her life.

Shortly after noon today a telephone message from Mrs. Graham asking for a detective at once reached police headquarters and Gibson went to the Graham home.

HEAVY SHIPMENTS OF ORANGES

LOS ANGELES, April 8.—Last week orange shipments over the Santa Fe were the heaviest that have been made from Southern California since early in the season. The rains and cold weather following retarded ripening of oranges, but the past two weeks of warm weather has perfected the fruit for market. On Saturday ninety-six cars of oranges were sent east over the Santa Fe, and as many over the Southern Pacific.

WERE AT THE BLOSSOM FAIR.

SAN JOSE, April 8.—Hundreds of San Joseans and large delegations by train from San Francisco and Oakland went to Saratoga today for the opening of the blossom festival. The day is fair and the roads in good condition. The ride was a revelation to the outsiders, for the thoroughfares to the pretty foothill town were bordered by orchards all in full bloom. Here and there a grain field relieved the expanse of bright color, like an island in a fluffy sea. A warm welcome greeted the visitors on their arrival at Saratoga. The improvements of the town had perfected the most elaborate arrangements of entertainment and after the prune orchards had been inspected in carriages and automobiles a dinner was served in Knox Hall. Afterwards came the literary exercises under the leadership of Judge Myrick of San Francisco. Games and athletics succeeded. Tomorrow is Los Gatos day.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS AT GOLDEN GATE GROUNDS

By J. W. LANGFORD.

LUCKY PLAYERS

FOUR FAVORITES SUCCESSFUL AT EMERYVILLE AND BOOKMAKERS LOSE HEAVILY.

Favorites continue to make life miserabe for the bookmakers at Emeryville, four of them landing in front yesterday at judging time and nearly every penciler quit the day with a losing balance. Golden Light, Rubus, Tufts and Redwald were heavily played winners and Lizzie Rice, who won the two-year-old event, was also well played and almost a first choice. Pirate Maid, winner of the remaining race, was an outsider in the betting, but there was little comfort in the victory for the books, as the first race is always a light betting affair.

The card was not up to the usual standard, there being very little class represented, but the fields were evenly balanced and some close finishes and interesting racing resulted. The second race had four horses in a close bunch passing the judges, with the first horse but a nose to the good and the others' necks apart. All the other races were won by less than the length of a horse's body, except the first, in which the field was badly strung out.

"Long Shot" Conley was the star rider, winning two races in a row. Stuart, Jackson, Ransch and L. Daly were responsible for the other events.

THE GEBHARD HANDICAP.

So far this season the two-year-olds have not been asked to go further than five furlongs, but Saturday the stamina of the baby-racers will be tested over the Futurity course, which is about 170 feet short of six furlongs. The feature of Saturday's racing will be the Gebhard Handicap for two-year-olds. It has a guaranteed value of $2,000 and will be decided over the Futurity Course. All the best two-year-olds at the track are engaged, and yesterday Handicapper Brooks made known the weights.

Maxnie and Artvis, unquestionably the two best youngsters we have seen this season, are allotted top weight with 125 pounds each. Durazzo, another high class performer, is next on the list and then comes High Chancellor and Sylvia Talbot. Following is the complete list of entries and weights:

PEDIGREE QUESTIONED.

News reached the track yesterday that a special dispatch from Lexington, Ky., to the New York Sun credited Ollie Troutman of Lexington with having a two-year-old colt by Major Richards, dam Fantasma, which is the same breeding as Guida, the property of Adolph Spreckels, now racing on the local track, and the dispatch says Troutman accuses Guida of being entered and raced under a false pedigree. Troutman claims he owns the mare Fantasma and has owned her since she was a yearling and he intends to forward an affidavit to the California Jockey Club for investigation.

FIRST TROUT

EIGHT RAINBOW TROUT ARE RECEIVED FROM KLAMATH SPRINGS.

A mysterious box made its appearance in Oakland yesterday. The duty of opening the box devolved on the sporting editor, to whom it was addressed. When the hand of the sporting writer finally held up to view a beautiful rainbow trout about twelve or fourteen inches long, weighing about one pound and a quarter, there was a rush, and all hands wanted to get at the box at the same time.

When the mysterious box was emptied of its contents eight rainbow trout all of about the same length and weight were lined out on a table and a card bearing the inscription: "Compliments of Mrs. J. E. Edson, Klamath Springs," told where they came from and how they got here. The trout proved to be as toothsome as they were beautiful and made a meal for more than a half dozen adults.

Shovel Creek at this season of the year abounds with rainbow trout and they run from about the size of those received in this office to two pounds. They run up the Klamath river from the ocean and find rest and food in Shovel Creek, where later in the season they spawn. They are captured with fly lure and spoon hook spinner and make a game and bitter struggle before nature succumbs and they are forced to submit. Mrs. Edson uses a spoon spinner exclusively and is a very successful angler.

There is no trouble exeperienced in shipping trout from Klamath Springs to this city, San Francisco and other cities, the trout reaching here by express twenty-four hours after leaving the water. They must be cleaned as soon after capture as convenient and then packed in dry hay in a crated box. In this manner they are sure to reach their destination perfectly dry and sweet. It is to be hoped that the trout will continue to run in large numbers near Mrs. Edson, and that she will not tire of shipping her surplus catch to the TRIBUNE staff.

LINED UP

FIRST WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON GAME WILL BE OPENED BY SACRAMENTO AND SAN FRANCISCO.

Sacramento and San Francisco lined up this afternoon at Golden Gate to open the first game of the baseball season on this side of the bay and the first week day afternoon game played in Oakland in many years. The Wednesday afternoon games will be continued throughout the season this year whether they are made profitable or not. It remains for the patronage of the games to say whether they will be continued another year. If the end of the season shows enough to encourage the management, Oakland will not only be given a Wednesday afternoon game but as many week day games as needed and in line with upper coast cities.

Around town among the baseball cranks there is a disposition to overlook the games between Sacramento and San Francisco and other teams until the local team engages on the home grounds and to regard the coming of the home team as the real opening of the local season. There is no doubt but the boys will get a rousing reception when they first appear here, but to be keyed right up to the proper pitch it is necessary to see and enjoy the game as played by others. Besides helping to remove the cobwebs from every rooting crevice it helps to get a line on the weak spots in the other teams and will make us more useful to our own boys when they reach the home grounds. The Antler Gun Club is hurrying up its Sunday forenoon shooting handicap that it may be free and prepared to turn out enmasse when the home team plays here. That is a creditable move on the part of the Antler shooters, but there is nothing in their schedule to interfere with the Wednesday afternoon game and they should lead the band and turn out in good numbers and get all the experience to be had before the boys get home.

Manager Harris of San Francisco is after a new pitcher and will probably get one from the over flow in Selee's Chicago National League team. Joe Cantillion has charge of Harris' Chicago end of the business and yesterday he wired Harris that either Glade, who played Des Moines last year: Sample of the Southern League; St. Vrain, late of Tacoma, or Rhodes, all under contract to Selee, would shortly be headed westward to strengthen his pitching department.

SMART YOUNGSTERS

NEIL AND HANLON SHOW CLEVER WORK AT THEIR TRAINING QUARTERS.

"You will see one of the best contests ever seen between little fellows when Neil and Hanlon meet this time, said Jim Neil, father of Frankie Neil, who is to meet Eddie Hanlon before the Acme Club Friday evening. "Hanlon has two decisions over my boy—one that he won on his merits and another that was a gift from the referee. The last time the two met I'll admit my boy was fairly defeated but the margin was close. Since then he has taken a long sea voyage that has greatly strengthened him and built him up and the boy who beats him now has got to be a champion. Win or lose you will see a fight worth looking at and there will be no love taps."

Both boys are in active training for the contest and both are reported to be in almost perfect physical condition. Hanlon is a slight favorite with the talent owing to his victories over Neil but the last named has a strong following and when the two reach the center of the ring for instructions from the referee it will probably be even money and take your pick.

Reserved seats for the contest are on sale at Bercovich's cigar store in this city and Harry Corbett's in San Francisco and judging from the advance sale the crowd will be a record breaker.

OAKLAND CLUB TO GIVE A CONCERT

WILL ENTERTAIN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE VACATION SCHOOL.

A musical entertainment of unusual excellence will be given at the Unitarian Church tomorrow evening by the members of the Oakland Club, assisted by prominent local musicians. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Vacation Schools.

THEY WORK TO HAVE PROHIBITION

OAKLAND ALLIANCE HOLDS A MEETING IN Y. M. C. A. HALL.

Oakland Prohibition Alliance held its April regular meeting in one of the halls in the Y. M. C. A. building on Twelfth street last night. Since its organization last October it has enjoyed great prosperity, the membership having trebled in that time and the interest in its work having steadily increased.

The following was the program: Song, "America": address, "The First Thing Needful,' 'by Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., read by Martin Knudson; recitation, "Life and Death," a poem by Ernest Crosby, read by one of the members; a paper by Prof. Rayner W. Kelsey, to be read by A. W. Holt; recitation, "When Uncle Sam Gets Sensible," by Joseph Mains, read by one of the members; debate, "Should the Alliance Join with Other Temperance Organizations to Secure Restrictive Laws Against the Saloon." Affirmative opened by Rev. W. S. Urmy and the negative by T. H. Montgomery. The subject was then thrown open to general discussion; announcements; recess; business meeting.

GOLDEN GATE SHOW WAS A SUCCESS

One of the cleverest entertainments ever given by juvenile talent was that given by the Golden Gate Minstrel Company Friday evening, April 4, at Germania Hall. The hall was crowded with an enthusiastic audience. The clever end men made lots of fun. Fred Nelson and Charlie Hughes, with their graceful dancing and witty sayings, proved to the audience that they will make second Billie Emersons. White, Little, Albert Schoener and George Nelson did well. The singing of Ella Rademan, Anita Ocheral and Mae Hughes was warmly received and they deserve great credit. Little Fern Anderson created lots of fun with her song, "The Man That Plays the Tambourine." "The Gold Dust Twins" was sung by Fred and Hazel Nelson. They received much applause.

FOURTEEN HUNDRED AT THE RELIANCE FIGHTS.

Kid M'Fadden Wins the Title of Champion After a Desperate Battle—Capeliss Beats Hamilton After Hard Contest.

It is many a day since the 1400 spectators at the Reliance Club last night witnessed two such magnificent ring contests as they saw there. Swifter, harder and more continuous fighting could not be seen anywhere.

It was a star night for the Reliance Club.

"Kid" McFadden put up the best fight of his life. His victory over Spider Welch in five hurricane rounds establishes his right to go to the head of his class. The man that takes the position from him hereafter has got to be all wool and a yard wide with something to spare, and then he will have a job on his hands that nobody will envy.

McFadden has not only vastly improved in ring generalship, but he has improved in another particular that is likely to make him more popular. His fight with the Spider was the cleanest he has ever made in the Reliance rooms. There is less rough and tumble about his style, and more scientific method.

Welch probably never fought better since he entered the ring. There was nothing wrong with his punch or his fence. He landed hard and plenty on ribs and head, sending in his long lean arms like a piston rod in stiff straight jolts. But he couldn't go the route. He could outpoint the Kid a bit oftener and get away quicker, but he couldn't stand the pace nor the punishment. If he had received the punishment he gave McFadden in the first three rounds, he would have been out of business. But the Kid took it like a duck would a shower, and went at him again like a terrier after a rat.

But it was a beautiful fight—game, scientific, and as lively as a sailor's hornpipe. At the tap of the gong they went at it with both hands, and in six seconds the Spider got there with both hands—the left on the head and the right on the ribs. Welch walked to his corner with clearly the advantage, and some of those who had backed the Kid at odds of 10 to 6 began to look serious. In the next round the Kid sailed in for a terrific two-handed mixup, in which the fighting was as fierce and fast as could be imagined. But the Spider came out of it little the worse for wear, and at the close had a trifle the best of it.

In the third round the Spider landed on the Kid's stomach and head repeatedly, and once had him a little unsteady. Then the old sports began to say "if the Spider can stand the pace he will win out." But the next round showed this "if" to be bigger than a mountain. The Kid rushed at the Spider with both hands, refusing to be stayed by facers or body punches. He literally made his way through the Spider's guard and hammered his wind and neck till he could hardly stand.

At it he went again in the fifth round and it was quickly seen that Welch had shot his bolt. He struck wildly and without steam. The Kid battered him along the ropes, hitting with hands till he turned and ran before the storm, then ducked and clinched for protection.

After the breakaway, the Spider got a stiff punch in the stomach, and a second later he missed a left swing for the face and caught a left straight on the jaw. Down he went in a huddle, but staggered to his feet at ten seconds only to clasp McFadden around the waist like a drunken man. As the referee pulled them apart Welch's seconds threw up the sponge.

The Spider reeled helplessly and would have fallen through the ropes, but for the referee. He had made a splendid fight, but he was up against a better man.

CAPELISS WINS.

The eight round go between Jack Capeliss and Jimmy Hamilton was better than many of the star events pulled off. It was a hard, swift fight from start to finish. Capeliss got the decision—a close one—but Hamilton got the plaudits of the crowd. Capeliss was hooted and the referee's decision jeered, while the building shook with cheers for Hamilton, who sat limp in his corner, too weak to make acknowledgment. Capeliss outclassed Hamilton in height, weight and reach, and he roughed it very unfairly in the first half of the contest. Being much stronger than Hamilton he repeatedly hurled him to the floor after the manner of the London prize ring rules, and more than once held the former's right arm with his left hand while punching him with his own right. Hamilton was the better boxer, but showed poor ring generalship. However, he made a plucky, clean fight that won the crowd.

TOUCH OF FARCE.

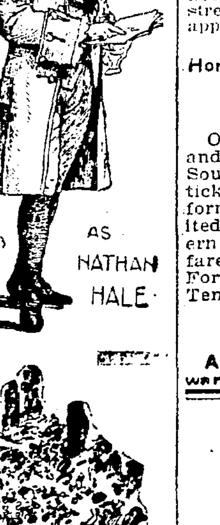

A touch of farce was given to the evening's entertainment by the bout between Charlie ... and Billy Borne, which was sandwiched between the two big events. ... seems to have done his training with a wheelbarrow, for he kept his body bent forward and his hands stuck out exactly in the attitude of a man pushing a barrow. The queer rocking motion of his head carried out the suggestion if a man working on the railway. Evidently he can make a better fist at that than fighting, for he is only a punching bag for anybody who knows how to box. His long Tipperary nose had a knack of bumping into Borne's glove without rhyme or reason. He stood being thumped around for three rounds, when his seconds threw a flour sack into the ring and called it off.

Dewitt Van Court and H. Tact acted as judges.

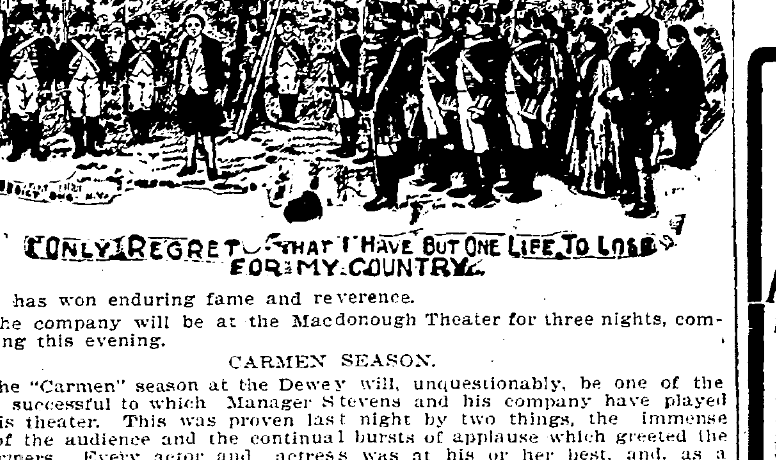

"NATHAN HALE" AT MACDONOUGH.

Great Play Will Be Produced at the Local Theater To-night—Dewey and Peck's Draw Crowds.

Wherever "Nathan Hale," Clyde Fitch's play, founded upon the romance and patriotism of one of the grandest characters that ever graced American history, has been given, there appears to have awakened a new and keener interest in the young and brilliant schoolmaster, whose services in behalf of his country are gratefully remembered by loving patriots who have caused monuments and statues to be erected in his memory. Recently we learn that a noble bronze figure, an ideal embodiment of all that appeals to the spiritual, religious and moral nature of manhood, a work of marvelous beauty and grandeur, conceived and executed by the eminent sculptor, William Ordway Partridge, has been completed and will shortly stand in the College Green at Yale. While such fitting tributes as these are engrossing the attention of Americans, writers are coming forward with great volumes of literature on the subject of "Nathan Hale," whose praises are being printed in prose and verse.

Charlotte Molyneux Hollaway and Prof. H. P. Johnson, two authors of world-wide fame, have just contributed works on the life and character of the "patriot-martyr." It was not, however, until the Daughters of the Revolution erected the fine heroic statue in City Hall Park, New York, that sentiment was fully aroused, and now comes a more substantial token of respect and and veneration for the glorious name of Hale. In the presentation of the play wherein is depicted all the romance, as well as patriotism of his character, all those tender promptings of love and sublime attributes of man which has won enduring fame and reverence.

The company will be at the Macdonough Theater for three nights, commencing this evening.

CARMEN SEASON.

The "Carmen" season at the Dewey will, unquestionably, be one of the most successful to which Manager Stevens and his company have played at this theater. This was proven last night by two things, the immense size of the audience and the continual bursts of applause which greeted the performers. Every actor and actress was at his or her best, and, as a consequence, the audience could not be otherwise than entertained.

PECK'S BROADWAY.

The usual Tuesday eveing audience was present at Peck's Broadway Theater last night and was afforded the keenest enjoyment. In fact, the merriment of the auditors was so great as to be in itself infectious. The performers this week are stars and each of them has a star part. The same bill will be repeated throughout the week.

Miss Cathryn Lawler,
Sec'y Ladies' Shakesperian Club, Appleton, Wis.

THE world is full of active men who direct the affairs of state, carry on commerce and pursue the professions of science and art, but the perfectly healthy woman is far too scarce. There is a crying need for sturdy mothers and active women who make themselves felt in the home and out of it. Women should really prepare themselves to undertake life's responsibilities. It is not strange that sickness is so common among women. The laborious duties of the housewife, coupled with the care of young children, are too much for the average woman whose delicately poised organs are easily upset. And women's natural modesty keeps them from complaining about matters connected with the organs of generation. They will not tell the story of their suffering to a doctor and they abhor local examinations and surgical operations. In this way thousands and thousands of women become invalids and the woman who is healthy and fit for every duty is hard to find. If every woman knew that Wine of Cardui invariably relieves female weakness when taken as directed there would be fewer sufferers. But all women do not yet realize that suffering female weakness is totally unnecessary when Wine of Cardui can be secured. The relief of over 1,000,000 suffering women by Wine of Cardui proves this statement.

Miss Cathryn Lawler, of Appleton, Wis., the Secretary of the Ladies' Shakesperian Club, is a lady of high intellectual attainments and she knows what she is talking about. She writes the following about her experience with Wine of Cardui:

"I have found Wine of Cardui an excellent remedy and am always pleased to call the attention of my friends to it. When that tired, languid feeling comes on you and you lose your appetite and sleep, your head aches and everything goes wrong, I have found that a bottle of your medicine has always restored me. The battle of health is fought in the blood and when Wine of Cardui enters the system it drives disease out, leaving the body free from all impurities. I have given it several trials and as it has never failed me I feel that I am competent to judge of its merits and unhesitatingly recommend it."

A lady like Miss Lawler, who has suffered female ills and has been cured by Wine of Cardui, has a right to regard herself competent to recommend Wine of Cardui to her suffering sisters. It is her duty to assume this responsibility when she knows it will bring others health and happiness the same as it brought health and happiness to her. And who could limit the good that would be done if every woman would take Miss Lawler's advice.

Every woman who suffers the terrible bearing-down aches, sharp, cutting, burning pains, which always result from menstrual troubles can take Wine of Cardui now in the privacy of her home. She can begin the treatment at once without the delay of seeing a doctor or waiting to have him make an examination. Wine of Cardui cannot harm you. No suffering woman can take it without being benefited. The Wine regulates menstruation and the perfect working of this natural health function makes a perfect, healthy woman. No woman suffers whose menses are regular, and to regulate the menses is the only way to cure female ills. No woman wants to submit to an operation. And Wine of Cardui is a medicine that makes operations for female troubles unnecessary. Wine of Cardui is a medicine you can buy from your druggist at $1.00 a bottle and treat your own case. If you think you need advice write to The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and describe clearly all your symptoms and a letter of advice will be sent you. Or you can get a bottle of Wine of Cardui and begin the cure today.

WINE OF CARDUI

Women who have suffered and are now cured know how great a remedy this is.

EVILS OF FOREST DESTRUCTION.

The prodigious loss occasioned by the recent freshets in the East has drawn attention to the sinister fact that the annual floods in the streams having their source in the great Appalachian chain are growing continually more destructive. The streams are becoming more torrential in character. They rise higher and more rapidly in flood season and sink lower in dry weather. Streams formerly navigable are no longer so, and lands once above high water mark are now subject to inundation.

These are prequant facts. The present a condition which is due to a not remote cause. A scientist versed in forestry says these disastrous flood freshets are due to the stripping of the ranges forming the Appalachian chain of timber. The denudation of the mountain sides and upper plateaus of forests allows the rainfall to rush precipitately into the streams, causing them to rise to an extreme height with extraordinary rapidity. As the floods come without warning, there is little chance to prepare for them. Consequently they result in loss of human life as well as great destruction of property.

Other evils follow in the train of these disasters, such as drouths and soil spoliation. Stripped of timber, the thin hilly lands speedily dry out and become useless for cultivation. As the stumps and roots of the fallen trees rot away, there is nothing to stay the rush of waters during the heavy rains. In consequence, the soil of the uplands, as well as all sorts of debris, is washed away and swept into the water courses, raising their beds and choking their currents with obstructions. Because of this process, hillsides that were once covered with soil and forests now present only bare expanses of barren rock, forever irreclaimable by the hand of man. Here we see repeated the causes which have made the Apennines and maritime Alps regions of rocky desolation. Only masses of bare stone appear today where dense forests stood in the time of Hannible and in the later day of Caesar.

There is a profound lesson in this for California. This State will experience the same calamities that periodically visit Italy and Spain, and which are beginning to afflict the Appalachian States, if the denudation of the mountain ranges of forest growth continues. The greed of man threatens the destruction of the land.

PERKINS ALL RIGHT.

Even his enemies are obliged to admit that Senator Perkins' speech on the Exclusion bill was an able and telling effort. On every point it sustained the position of the people of the Pacific Coast, and met the highest expectations of his most ardent friends. Some of the Senator's critics had sneeringly intimated that he would not advocate the seamen's clause of the bill, but he confounded this prediction by squarely supporting it. Perhaps the gentlemen who prophesied differently secretly desired to see Senator Perkins do something that could be twisted as favoring Chinese immigration. Senator Perkins says "it is worth a great deal to have the Stars and Stripes fly at the masthead." Right he is. Then, too, there is the true ring in this response to a question propounded by Senator Gallinger: "I believe the best way is to encourage the American sailor. I would make his an honorable vocation, as it is, and when it is only a question of dollars and cents, I would give the preference all the time to the American citizen, or the one who is capable of becoming an American citizen, sooner than I would a Chinese."

Senator Perkins is all right. He has never been found wanting when the test came. And sensible people are not going to quarrel with him for not crossing bridges before he gets to them.

That is a curious notion some people appear to have that because Cecil Rhodes left his estate to the cause of education he thereby sanctified all the deeds he committed in life. A good act may, in greater or lesser measure, mitigate a wrongful one, but the record of the wrong must always remain. Rhodes performed many good deeds in his life time, but in the pursuit of a great project he made fatal blunders which resulted in death and desolation, war, rapine, and an enormous sacrifice of treasure. The good that he intended to do cannot wipe out the record of blood and misery written in the accomplishment of his design. The sufferings of the poor wretch at the stake are not lessened by the fact that those who kindled the faggots are actuated by the pious desire of saving his soul from the clutches of the devil. In passing, it may be remarked that Rhodes' scheme of education is not as beneficent as it appears on its face. It is a palpable following up of the political chimera he had followed all his life.

The forthcoming British budget will be something enormous. It is estimated at 171,000,000 pounds sterling, about $855,000,000. This ought to make the British taxpayer feel a trifle overheated.

THE PREDATORY SHIPBUILDERS.

The reports of Colonel Chamberlain and Colonel Maus who made an inspection for the War Department of the army transport service, transmitted to the House by Secretary Root, indicate that the shipbuilding firms in San Francisco took advantage of the Government's extremity to extort outrageous prices for repairing and refitting ships They combined among themselves to fix their own prices, and as the work had to be done at once the local transport officials were powerless. Soldiers and supplies had to be forwarded to Manila without delay, and if the Quartermaster Department had stopped to fight with the predatory shipbuilders it would have been subjected to severe criticism for putting a comparatively small money saving before the good of the service and the welfare of the troops in the field. They took the lesser of the two evils.

This extortion was practiced on the Government until the Mare Island Navy Yard entered the field as a bidder for the work of repairing army transports. Then the shipbuilders dropped their prices to a reasonable figure, which shows that the Mare Island Yard saves the Government on much work that it actually does not perform.

But the extraordinary feature about this case is that nobody blames the predatory shipbuilders, but all the wrath is visited on the officers of the transport service who were comparatively helpless in the matter. The shipbuilders and other contractors stand convicted of having plundered the Government. The same men, be it remembered, are violently protesting against building warships at the Government yards. They are also prominent and vociferous in their opposition to a Chinese Exclusion bill that will exclude. By their works ye shall know them.

President Roosevelt's reception in Charleston was none the less warm that Tillman was not there to receive him.

HE KNOWS HOW TO CAMPAIGN.

WHAT THE BERKELEY GAZETTE SAYS ABOUT POPULAR FRANK JORDAN.

(Berkeley Gazette, April 8.)

California does not possess a more unique and original campaigner than the popular County Clerk of Alameda county, Frank C. Jordan. When he launched his campaign for the Republican nomination for Clerk of the Supreme Court he did it by means of his now famous checks on "The Bank of Prosperity," which insured to payees 365 happy days in 1902. Now Mr. Jordan is preparing a document in the shape of an elegantly printed bond to be signed by twenty electors. Each bond is sent by Mr. Jordan to a friend with a request that it be passed along until the twenty names are secured when the bond will be returned to him. This novel plan will reach many people and favorably impress on them the fact of Mr. Jordan's candidacy.

Mr. Jordan is a Native Son, having been born in Shasta county two score and two years ago. He has led an unusually active life and has held a number of positions of trust. He was Secretary to Senator Vrooman in the State Senate for a number of years, studied law with Vrooman and Davis, and was employed in the Oakland Bank of Savings. Subsequently he embarked in the printing business and after a few years found himself financially wrecked and his health so shattered that physicians pronounced his case hopeless. But Mr. Jordan never faultered. With indomitable will and pluck he clung to life, regained his health and went to work to retrieve his shattered fortune.

In 1894 he was nominated for County Clerk and elected. He proved an efficient official and systematized and arranged his office in a model manner. He originated the plan of annual statements of county finances which has since been adopted by the Legislature. In 1898 he was re-elected.

He belongs to a number of fraternal organizations and has taken an active interest in public affairs. He is a substantial citizen and man of family.

Mr. Jordan is an enthusiastic, energetic, aggressive campaigner, and we believe if he receives the nomination he will not only be elected by a good majority, but that he will be a help to other candidates on the ticket.

BUSY DAYS FOR THE OAKLAND SMART SET.

Large Luncheon at the Ebell Rooms—Mrs. Chas. M. Goodall Entertains—Miss Allen Gives a Party.

The regular monthly luncheon of the Ebell Society was held yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. R. Scupham was the presiding hostess and the musical program was arranged by Mrs. Richard Derby. The program was one of unusual excellence and each number was greeted with enthusiastic applause. Mrs. E. H. Palmer of San Francisco, who has a mezzo-soprano voice of rare sweetness and depth, gave several selections that were highly appreciated, the numbers being: "Summer Night," by Goring Thomas; "The Nightingale's Song," by Nevin; "Were My Song With Wings Provided," by Hahn and "Retournelle," by Chaminade. The delightful playing of Mrs. Oscar Mansfeldt was an unexpected treat and her exquisite rendering of Chopin's "Prelude and Polonaise, Opus 53," was listened to with rapt attention. She also gave a waltz, "Opus 42," by Chopin.

In the interval between the musical numbers Miss Edith Howe, a dainty bit of girlhood from Mills College, gave a clever French monologue entitled, "The Eve of Marriage." In response to enthusiastic encores she recited "Naughty Babette," a bright, original sketch, and a poem in Scotch dialect, "Huddle Doon."

Mrs. Scupham was assisted in receiving by Mrs. John Russ, Mrs. C. D. Pierce, Mrs. Schlessinger, Mrs. Gordon Stolp, Mrs. H. D. Rowe, Mrs. F. J. Shafter, Mrs. H. A. Powell, Mrs. A. H. Pratt, Mrs. D. A. BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Gertrude Allen celebrated the anniversary of her birth on last Saturday evening with an old-fashioned "candy pull" at her home on the corner of Thirteenth and Jackson streets.

Shortly after the invited guests had assembled, small tissue paper parcels, ded with blue and pink ribbons, were distributed which, upon being opened, were found to contain aprons made of calico of the most fantastic designs and colors. The gentlemen sought the ladies having corresponding aprons and when the members of the jolly party were thus paired off, they marched to the kitchen, where they each received a portion from a great kettle of molasses candy. Walter Leimert and Miss Bessie Palmer received prizes as being the most expert candy-pullers.

Toward the close of the evening supper was served in the dining-room, which was beautifully decorated with pink roses. In the center of the large round table a great rose-frosted birthday cake occupied the post of honor. Radiating from it were bands of pink ribbon, terminating in a rose at each place. At a given signal the ribbons were pulled from the cake and in this way were dislodged the regulation ring, thimble and other trinkets. Miss Ione Fore drew out the ring. The name cards were unique, being individual birthday cakes, each with a tiny pink candle burning in the center and having the names written in "frosting."

Altogether the evening was a most delightful one and those who enjoyed it with Miss Allen were: Miss Luella Williams, Miss Gail Converse, Miss Clara Converse, Miss Sadie Hale, Miss Gertrude Gould, Miss Marietta Havens, Miss Bessie Palmer, Miss Ruth Dunham, Miss Florence Hayden, Miss Edith Gaskill, Miss Ione Fore and Messrs. William Smith, William Hough, Charles Tripler, Thomas Olney, Thomas McNab, Walter Leimert, Wigginton Creed, Ray Baker, Max Taft, Kay Crawford and Clay Gooding.

THE GOODALL LUNCHEON.

Mrs. Charles Minor Goodall gave an elaborate luncheon yesterday at her home on Lake street, the occasion being a farewell to Mrs. Oscar Fitzallen Long. The whole house looked like a bit of spring, with its snowy blossoms, the arrangement of the table decorations being particularly beautiful. An elaborate menu was provided. Those who joined Mrs. Goodall in saying "Au revoir" to Mrs. Long were: Mrs. William Magee, Mrs. Harry East Miller, Mrs. Harrison Clay, Miss Strong, Mrs. P. E. Bowles, Mrs. George S. Wheaton, Mrs. Edson Adams, Mrs. Nelson Phelps, Mrs. Sam Breck, Miss Landers, Mrs. Le Grand Canon Tibbets, Mrs. Charles Bliss, Miss Pringle, Miss Bess Pringle, Mrs. F. Richardson Wells and Mrs. A. S. Macdonald.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

Elaborate plans are being made for the entertainment to be given by the King's Daughters of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church on Friday evening next. The program will be very interesting, among those to take part being Miss Ada Bibby, who will give a reading, "Exhibition Day," and will recite "The Soul of the Violin," by Margaret Mirrell.

Mrs. Minnie Hemple-Henderson, soprano, will sing "Villanelle," by Acqua, and "An Irish Folk Song," by Arthur Foote, and "Spring Song," by Oscar Weil. She will be accompanied on the piano by Mrs. William Bibby, who will also play for Alfred C. Read, baritone, who will render several selections. It is expected that there will be a large attendance from Oakland and East Oakland, and that the church will be benefited by quite a sum.

ALAMEDA ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss Delia Martinez of Alameda and Fred Winchester of Oakland. The groom-to-be is a popular young man of this city, being a member of Company F, N. G. C. The wedding, which will be solemnized during the latter part of this month will take place at the home of the bride's parents, 1528 Oak street, Alameda.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Mrs. Frank Baskett, nee Gladys Rosenberg, daughter of Laz. Rosenberg, has returned from a five months' visit to her husband's parents in Nashville, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Baskett after remaining here a few days, will go to their new home in San Mateo, where they will reside permanently.

Dr. Wilson Stockham's condition is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Requa will go to Santa Monica the first of May.

Mrs. Andrew McCreary left on Saturday for her home on the Lake Como, Switzerland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parcells have taken a house on Vernon street and will occupy it this week.

Miss Irene Bangs has returned from Visalia, where she was the guest of Miss Bessie Fillmore.

THEY ALL LOOK TO CALIFORNIA.

HENRY ABRAHAMSON'S VISITS THE EAST—MAKES HEAVY PURCHASES.

"I found business exceedingly good all over the East," said Henry Abrahamson of Abrahamson Brothers, who has recently returned home from a business trip. "I visited Chicago, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and other cities and found prosperous conditions prevailing everywhere. People generally are looking for a prosperous year, and I found them all with eyes toward California as the center of the greatest development. The expansion of an Oriental trade, and the position we occupy in the track of the world's commerce have drawn attention to this State as it never was before. People to whom California was only a vague term now know that this State is on the map, where it is and what its possibilities are. Unless all signs fail, the tide of immigration and development is setting our way. We may not all see it yet, but it is coming.

"It is difficult to lay large orders for goods for immediate delivery—I mean up-to-date styles and patterns. All the mills are behind with orders, and prices are steadily tending upward. As an example of this, we laid a large order for a certain line of goods three months ago, and could not get an assurance of delivery till the first of next June. In the meantime this line of goods has gone up fifteen per cent in the wholesale market. So, if we are delayed in getting our stock, we will be in a position to sell below current rates. We get the advantage of the advance in price.

"One of the chief objects of my trip was to lay in an extensive stock of ready-made goods for ladies. We have greatly enlarged our cloak and suit department, and can sell to our customers in Oakland just as cheaply as the same articles are sold in New York. We buy at as low figures as the New York retailers can get, and the difference in freight is more than offset by the heavier expense the Eastern merchant is under. By buying in large quantities and placing orders directly with the mills we get goods at manufacturers' prices, and can defy competition. We can undersell San Francisco because our rent account and other expenses are smaller.

"Our millinery department has also been expanded to meet the growing trade. We find that our local trade is rapidly increasing, and that there is an active demand for high class goods which customers used to look to San Francisco merchants to furnish. The people of this city are realizing that they can get better bargains at home than by going abroad. As you will see we are carrying a heavier stock in every line of goods than ever before, and if you will observe you will note that they include all the latest styles and novelties. We close out everything the moment it gets out of date. This shows that the public of Oakland demands the very best trade facilities going. We are meeting this demand to the best of our ability and I think successfully."

THEY ARE TRYING TO FIND F. ZIMMERMAN

Friends of Franklin Zimmerman of Blue Ball, Pennsylvania, are endeavoring to locate him in California, where he is supposed to be at present. He left his home in 1893 to visit the World's Fair at Chicago and afterwards expected to travel throughout the West. He was last heard of at Sioux City, Iowa, when he wrote home for more funds.

Mayor Barstow today received a letter of inquiry from S. H. Musselman, the young man's guardian, who states that there is a considerable sum of money awaiting the missing man. When he left home Zimmerman was 28 years old.

MISS CAROLINE WILLIAMSON.

Popular Caroline Williamson Entertains Many Friends at Her Home.

It is with regret that the many friends of Miss Caroline Williamson have received the announcement that she will soon leave Oakland for her summer vacation. Miss Williamson's sunny disposition has won her a host of friends and they are loath to lose her even for a few months in the summer. She is conceded by every one to be one of the most popular young ladies in Oakland society.

Miss Williamson has been extensively entertained by her many friends, and her home at 576 Eighth street has been the scene of many brilliant gatherings. She is a charming hostess, possessing a captivating manner of entertaining that is irresistable. For beauty of face and form, as well as for popularity, Miss Williamson has few equals in Oakland. She is a favorite in social circles on both sides of the bay, and wherever she is known she is admired by men and women alike. She will give several parties before she leaves on her summer vacation.

LATE NEWS FROM BERKELEY.

COEDS ARE HOLDING AN ELECTION AT COLLEGE TODAY.

BERKELEY, April 9.—Today the election of officers of the Women's Associated Students for the next year is in progress. The offices to be filled are president, vice-president and directors of the Art Association. The newly elected officers will be installed on April 12. The candidates are: President, Miss Abby Waterman, Miss Grace Barnett; first vice-president, Miss Mary Putnam; second vice-president, Miss Mary Walker, Miss Edith Evans, Miss Martha Aitken, Miss Grace Moody, Miss Carrie Stevenson; treasurer, Miss Martha Rice; secretary, Miss Alice Philips; directors Art Association—Miss Edna Wilde, Miss Margaret Henderson, Miss Ruby Cunningham, Miss Ethel Ratcliffe and Miss Gertrude Davidson.

As there is no opposition for the offices of first vice-president, treasurer and secretary, they will not be voted on.

HUNT IS THE TENNIS CHAMPION.

BERKELEY, April 9.—Captain Hunt has won the University tennis championship in the singles. Braley and Hendricks were compelled to drop out of the tournament, owing to the demands of baseball upon their time, and by this default Hunt becomes this year's champion.

Brown and Gavin tied for second place and will play some time this week to determine who is entitled to second honors.

CHORAL SOCIETY ELECTIONS ARE BEING HELD TODAY.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The election of officers of the Choral Society is in progress today. The polls will close at 5 o'clock. The candidates being voted for are: President, Misses Abby Sanborn, Miss Florence Champreaux; secretary, Miss Virginia Whitehead, Miss Pearl Dewing; treasurer, Miss Violet Judy, Miss Margaret French.

The other offices will be filled by appointment by the president.

STILL VOTING ON THE HONOR SYSTEM.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The voting on the honor system of governing college examinations was so light yesterday that the committee in charge decided to extend the time of voting until 4 o'clock today.

The vote cast is a very unsatisfactory one and the prevailing opinion is that the honor system will be rejected because it entails upon the students the duty of informing against each other.

There is a strong desire for student control, but the students desire a system which will obviate the necessity of the students turning informers.

Less than one-half of the students will have expressed their opinion on the matter when the votes are finally counted unless today a greater number vote than on the previous voting days.

FOUND NOT GUILTY.

BERKELEY, April 9.—Henry W. Vogt, charged with intent to commit murder on Hugh O'Neil, was dismissed at his preliminary trial by Justice Edgar this morning.

CLASS DAY COMMITTEE.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The committee on Class Day arrangements held an important meeting today. Various plans and arrangements were discused for the Class Day exercises.

MRS. IDA L. ROSER

Grand-Niece of Ex-President James K. Polk, Writes to Mrs. Pinkham Saying:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been married for nearly two years, and so far have not been blessed with a child. I have, however, suffered with a complication of female troubles and painful menstruation, until very recently.

MRS. IDA L. ROSER.

"The value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was called to my attention by an intimate friend, whose life had simply been a torture with inflammation and ulceration, and a few bottles of your Compound cured her; she can hardly believe it herself to-day, she enjoys such blessed health. I took four bottles of your Compound and consider myself cured. I am once more in fine health and spirits; my domestic and official duties all seem easy now, for I feel so strong I can do three times what I used to do. You have a host of friends in Denver, and among the best count. Yours very gratefully.—MRS. IDA L. ROSER, 326 18th Ave., Denver, Col."—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free.

MERCHANTS PREPARING FOR FOURTH.

Propose to Have Large Display in Oakland in July.

COMMITTEES WILL SOON BE NAMED.

The meeting of the Merchants' Exchange last night was characterized by a discussion between Director Gier and Secretary Walker as to the necessity of immediate action in regard to arrangements for the celebration of America's natal day.

Secretary Walker held that heretofore the committees had been appointed not sooner than the last of April, and that enthusiasm was likely to die out if the matter was agitated at a date earlier than this.

On the contrary, President Sohst maintained that heretofore the arrangements had been made too late.

Director Gier made a statement to the effect that last year he and Director Arper had been the only directors who had devoted their whole time to the Fourth of July celebration, in spite of the fact that the visit of President McKinley intervened.

Mr. Gier maintained that the various civic and military organizations had been informed too late, and that in the case of Livermore, in particular, the celebration in Oakland would have been materially augmented had proper notice been given.

Director Arper made a statement explaining the proposition of Secretary Walker, yet enforcing the plea put forward by Director Gier and President Sohst. He explained that no ordinary director could be expected to devote his entire time to the direction of the Fourth of July celebration.

The final action of the Exchange was a resolution which determined upon the appointment of five directors as a nucleus of the final committee to direct the arrangements for the Fourth of July celebration.

Secretary Walker, a member of the special Santa Fe committee, reported the action of the City Council taken last night regarding the new local franchise.

HE CELEBRATED HIS BIRTHDAY.

BUT IT COST JOHN FLYNN $20 IN THE POLICE COURT THIS MORNING.

John Flynn, who lives on Seventh street near Chester, celebrated his birthday yesterday by becoming intoxicated and toward midnight he went in search of trouble. He found it. He entered the restaurant at 1516 Seventh street and without warning he hurled a bottle of vermouth at the head of John Cumbelich, the proprietor. The bottle hit the Slavonian over the right eye, inflicting a painful, though not serious wound. He next found himself in the patrol wagon on his way to the City Hall. In the Police Court this morning Flynn pleaded guilty to a charge of battery and was sentenced by Police Judge Smith to pay a fine of $20 or spend ten days in jail.

HEAVY FINE IS IMPOSED ON NEGRO

FOUND GUILTY OF AN ASSAULT IN THE POLICE COURT THIS MORNING.

Jesse Mitchell, the colored boy who assaulted Octanus Patrice, an elderly negro, pleaded guilty to charges of battery this morning and was fined $130, with the alternative of spending sixty-five days in jail by Police Judge Smith. Prosecuting Attorney Leach stated that a charge of assault with a deadly weapon would have been placed against Mitchell but that they had been unable to ascertain the nature of the weapon used. The old man's trousers, he said, had been slashed as if with a knife. It was in view of this statement that Judge Smith imposed the heavy sentence.

The trouble occurred at the Franklin House, while Mitchell was intoxicated. The assault was unprovoked.

SENTENCE DAY IN SUPERIOR COURT ROOM.

Nick Perata is Given Five Years in San Quentin Prison.

JOHN LANG GETS THREE MONTHS.

Nick Perata, who was found guilty of stealing a watch from F. W. Scott, valued at $65, was sentenced to San Quentin this morning for five years by Judge Melvin in the Superior Court. In response to the question of the court as whether he had anything to say, Perata said:

"I would like to get off as lightly as possible. I have got a good future before me and I am anxious to use it. I would like to be sent to San Quentin."

The sentence was then pronounced and Perata received it with a smile.

Henry Wilson, colored, who has been found guilty of assaulting Mrs. Moody Dearing, was to have been sentenced this morning, but his case was continued until the 18th to enable him to take steps to appeal to the Supreme Court.

The cases of Furokaua and Mogaua, two Japanese, who were found guilty of extorting money from a fellow-countryman at Alvarado, where they pretended to be officers, was continued for a week at the request of ex-Judge Frick. Part of the cases were heard by both Judges Melvin and Ellsworth and these gentlemen have not yet considered all the evidence in the case. It is the intention of the defendants to move for a new trial.

Edward Carroll who was charged with stealing a case with sample goods from a stable, withdrew his plea of not guilty of burglary this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary in the second degree. His attorney said that the defendant had entered the stable through an open door and entered an office in the stable which also had an open door and which was accessible to the public. No door or window had been broken. In fact, counsel claimed that the offense was scarcely more than petty larceny. The stable robbed was that of Gates & Vogt, on the corner of Thirteenth and Franklin streets.

Judge Melvin said that he would take into consideration the fact that the defendant, by his plea of not guilty, had saved the county the expense of a trial and that there were mitigating circumstances in the case.

Judge Melvin sentenced the accused to one year in San Quentin.

John Lang charged with assault with a deadly weapon was next arraigned. District Attorney Allen said that he did not think that anything graver than assault could be proved against the accused. Lang pleaded guilty to that charge. His counsel showed that Lang had already been in jail two months, whereupon Judge Melvin sentenced him to three months in the County Jail.

DREW A PISTOL ON WORKMAN.

HOW MRS. D. F. DUGGAN WAS OUTWITTED BY THE RAILROAD.

BERKELEY, April 13.—The Southern Pacific section hands, while laying a switch along Third street to connect the California Ink Company with the main line, were temporarily restrained from working by Mrs. D. F. Duggan, who compelled the men to quit their work at the point of a revolver.

The reason given by the woman for her action was that the railroad company was encroaching on her property.

During the absence of Mrs. Duggan, however, the rails were quickly laid yesterday and have since remained in position.

FOOD DOES IT.

Restores Health More Surely Than Any Medicine.

It is a short road to trouble when the food does not supply the right material to rebuild the brain. You cannot use the brain without breaking down small particles every day, and you cannot rebuild unless the food furnishes the right kind of building material, and that is albumen and phosphate of potash. Not such as you get from the druggist, but such as Nature stores in certain kinds of food.

Grape-Nuts contains these particles, and well defined results can be obtained from using the toothsome, delicious food.

A brain worker whose name can be given by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich., writes: "Last Fall I got in a desperate condition through excessive mental work and lack of proper food. I was finally compelled to abandon all business and seek absolute quiet and rest in the country.

"I had been under the care of a good physician for several months, but it seemed my food did not rebuild the brain tissue properly. I was on the verge of despair when I left for the country.

"Down at the ferry I purchased an evening journal and my attention was attracted to the headlines of a Grape-Nuts advertisement which read, 'Food Cure Nature's Way.' I read it carefully and decided to give Grape-Nuts a trial, so next morning I went in on the new food and in two weeks' time gained 10 pounds and felt like a new man all over.

"I candidly believe if I had known the remarkable sustaining power of the food prior to my illness I would not have needed a physician nor would I have been sick at all."

WEARY AND HUNGRY HE WANTED TO DIE.

An Old Man of Sixty-Five Years Cut His Wrists.

DID NOT HAVE ANYTHING TO EAT.

Alexander Johnson, aged 65 years, who has no home and who was hungry and desperate, cut his wrist in a dozen places yesterday afternoon in an attempt to commit suicide. He was taken to the hospital. He will recover.

"I haven't worked for a year. I couldn't have worked if there had been any work to do, because I've been too sick," said Johnson. "My wife got tired of me and wanted me to leave our old home at 1510 Broadway. I didn't know where to go or what to do, so I decided to kill myself. I don't know what I've got to live for; I've had too much suffering for one man.

"I was in the greatest despair Sunday, and I made up my mind to end it right there. I took two knives and a pair of shears that I used when I was able to do gardening work and chopped my wrist. I thought I could bleed to death that way. Then I lay down on my bed and held my wrist over a bucket so the blood wouldn't soil the floor.

"Mrs. Tateman, the landlady, came in two or three times to see me, but I concealed my hand, so she did not know what I had done. She didn't offer me food because she didn't know I was hungry. My wife didn't come near me.

"I stood it as long as I could, but death would not come, and I had to give up today. I guess I didn't cut deep enough into my wrist."

"Are you still determined to kill yourself?" was asked.

"I don't want to live; I have nothing to live for. I intend to try some other way that will be easier this time."

OAKLAND MAN IS CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.

Charles Burress, who works occasionally in a fish market in Oakland, was arrested last night on Front street by Policeman Green and charged with burglary. About a month ago Burress is alleged to have gone to the house of his brother-in-law, Patsy Stevens, at 916 Montgomery street, and in the absence of the owner and his wife, stole some jewelry and a gold headed cane. He was arrested on complaint of Stevens.

MANY TONS OF ASPARAGUS ARE BEING SHIPPED.

Haywards Growers Enjoy a Most Successful Season.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM INTERIOR TOWN

HAYWARDS, April 9.—The asparagus season is now well under way in this district and the packers of that vegetable have put on an extra number of hands so as to be able to properly handle the large crop. The Meek Brothers, who are at present constructing a packing house and also enlarging their warehouses, have secured the use of Hunt Brothers large cannery, where there are about 100 women at work packing asparagus. The immensity of the asparagus trade can hardly be realized until it is known that more than $1,000 worth of the vegetable is being put up every day by the Meek Brothers alone. The principal part of the pack which is being put up here comes from this district and about Milpitas.

The new Meek packing house will be fitted up with the latest and most improved machinery and apparatus.

Responses to toasts at the banquet which followed were cleverly made and thoroughly enjoyed.

NEW SALARIES AT SAN LEANDRO.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES GIVE CLERK AND MARSHAL AN INCREASE.

SAN LEANDRO, April 9.—At Monday night's meeting of the Town Trustees final action in the matter of raising the Clerk's and Marshal's salaries was taken. The Marshal will now receive $75 a month, while the Clerk will receive $35. The increase was objected to by two members of the Board, Trustees Cary and Gallet, who voted "no" when the ordinance raising the salaries was passed.

During the meeting the Board paid over from the general fund to the fund of the Fire Department the sum of $30. President Gallet also reported that the old fire hydrants had been sold.

Poundmaster F. Ury reported that during the month of March he had destroyed twenty-eight dogs. He stated that San Leandro was rapidly being cleared of its canine pests.

Town Marshal Gaisenhofer reported the collection of $177.50 during the month of March.

It was stated by Chairman Gallet that a representative of the Suburban Electric Light Company had informed him that the company would furnish the town with light at the rate of $6 per arc a month. As a number of the Trustees are about to go out of office they did not care to take any action in regard to securing the service of the Suburban Company. The matter will no doubt be taken up immediately after the election of new officers.

INJURED HER ARM.

Mrs. John F. Marshal was run into recently by a horse and sustained a painful injury to her arm. Mrs. Marshal was standing with a number of ladies near a fence on Dutten avenue watching the parade of the Holy Ghost celebration. During the ceremonies a bomb was exploded and frightened a horse owned by A. Levaum. The animal backed up against the fence, knocking Mrs. Marshal to the ground, where the wheel of the rig passed over her arm dislocating the member. She was at once carried to her home and Dr. Mason summoned. The injury, though not a serious one, will prove quite painful for some time.

FELL FROM HIS WHEEL.

Monday evening Louis Knox and several young men from this place met with an accident while riding their wheels at Twenty-third avenue. The young men had been racing with a street car between San Leandro and Oakland. When they reached Twenty-fifth avenue they ran into a stretch of rough road and owing to the high speed at which they were going it brought a terrible jar on the wheels. The wheel on which Knox was riding suddenly gave way in the front forks and the young man was thrown over the machine a distance of ten feet. As he struck the ground the other wheelmen, being unable to get around him, met in a bunch and for a few moments there was a jumble of wheels and riders. Several of the boys were badly bruised. Knox sustained a bad cut behind the ear and several bruises. The accident was a peculiar one and spectators were surprised at the escape of the boys from receiving serious injuries.

JOHN DUARTE VERY WEAK.

John Duarte, the 9-year-old boy, who was run over Saturday by an engine and had his right foot cut off below the knee, is quite weak from loss of blood and the nervous strain which followed the accident. It is thought, however, by Dr. Tormey, who has charge of the case, that the boy will recover.

ENTERTAINMENT AT FRUITVALE.

MISS SARAH CURRAN CHOSEN CENSUS MARSHAL FOR THE DISTRICT.

FRUITVALE, April 9.—Last night Fruitvale Lodge No. 61, I. O. O. F. gave an entertainment, it being the anniversary of the organization of the lodge. The affair was a great success and was attended by a large number of friends and members of the order. A program which included instrumental and vocal selections was rendered together with literary exercises.

FIRE COMMISSIONERS ELECTED.

An election took place Monday for the purpose of electing a Board of Fire Commissioners and as there was no opposition to the ticket the following Board was elected with 35 votes each: Benjamin Fehnemann, August Wolff, Claus Meinert. NOTES OF INTEREST FROM ELMHURST

MANY SOCIAL EVENTS ARE PLANNED BY THE COUNTRY LODGES.

ELMHURST, April 9.—An unusual number of social events have been given lately by the different lodges of this town and there is promise of several more in the near future.

The Red Men are talking of giving an entertainment, the nature of which has not been decided, while the Artisans, who have not been very much in evidence of late are also planning for a celebration which will take place in the near future.

PERSONALS.

S. G. Rankin and his son Holbrook left recently for Windsor Springs

Ruddy, Clear Faces Are Indications of Spring Health.

Paine's Celery Compound

Makes Pure, Red Blood and Establishes a New and Vigorous Vitality.

Men and women who have used Paine's Celery Compound and all who have a knowledge of the wondrous cures it has wrought, particularly in springtime, unite in declaring that the great medicine is a national blessing.

The use of Paine's Celery Compound at this season by the weak, nervous, sleepless, and those afflicted with rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, liver trouble, kidney disease, and impure and poisoned blood, means pure red blood, perfect digestive vigor, ruddy, clear faces, renewed strength and permanent health.

Thousands of grateful people have sent in unsolicited letters testifying to cures made by Paine's Celery Compound after the failures of doctors and use of other medicines. The wealthy and poor, the noted and famous of our large cities and the quiet people of our rural districts have sent the glad news that at last they have found a remedy (Paine's Celery Compound) that has restored lost vitality and made them themselves again.

No proof of the efficacy of Paine's Celery Compound as a blood purifier and renovator can be more conclusive or forcible than the strong testimony offered by Mr. Ira Williams, of Jamestown, N. Y., one of the most popular traveling salesmen on the road. Mr. Williams says:

"It is now about eight years since I used Paine's Celery Compound, and cleared my system of impurities from which I suffered severely, on account of a breaking out all over my head and part of my body. I spent hundreds of dollars in employing the best physicians, but they could do nothing for me. By the use of your wonderful medicine my recovery was complete. I am a traveling salesman, on the road most of the time, and sincerely believe that I have helped thousands of others by my personal testimony as to the wonderful curative properties of Paine's Celery Compound. It certainly merits its wonderful success, and it gives me great pleasure to say so."

Canada, where they will visit Mr. Rankin's mother.

Fred T. Odgers and Frank Williamson have gone to Alaska where they will remain all summer.

Edmund O'Neil left this week for Wadsworth, Nevada, where he will be employed in the interests of the E. B. & A. L. Stone Companies.

Charles H. Greenmann has been appointed school census marshal of the Lockwood District.

NOTICE TO VOTERS REGISTRATION

Office of the County Clerk, Alameda County, Cal.

NOTICE IS HEREBY given that in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 53 Statutes of 1899, all voters of Alameda County must apply for re-registration in order to be able to vote at the General Election in November, as every name on Great Register was cancelled January 1st, 1902.

Owing to the fact that there is no provision of law providing assistance for the Clerk to register voters, IT IS IMPORTANT THAT VOTERS SHOULD APPLY FOR REGISTRATION AT ONCE IN ORDER TO EXPEDITE THE WORK.

Such re-registration began on the 1st day of January, and will be in progress at all times until forty days preceding the next election in November.

In order to facilitate the work of re-registration, attention is called to the provisions of Section 1097, which reads as follows:

Sec. 1097. No person's name must be entered by the Clerk, unless:

1. Upon the production and filing of a certified copy of the judgment of the Superior Court directing such entry to be made.

2. If a naturalized citizen, upon the production of his certificate of naturalization, which certificate must be issued ninety days prior to the succeeding election, or upon his affidavit that it is lost or out of his possession, which affidavit must state the place of his nativity and the time and place of his naturalization, together with his affidavit that he has resided in the United States for five years, and in this State for one year next preceding the time of application, and that he would be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election; provided, however, if such naturalized citizen shall have been previously registered as a qualified elector in any of the counties, or cities and counties of this State, his name must not be entered by the Clerk unless he produces a certificate of such registration, issued by the party authorized by law to issue such certificate, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of his naturalization.

3. If born in a foreign country, upon his affidavit that he became a citizen of the United States by virtue of the naturalization of his father while he was residing in the United States, and under the age of twenty-one years, and that he is or would be an elector of the county at the next ensuing election.

4. In other cases, upon the affidavit of the party that he is or will be an elector of the county at the next succeeding election.

Further notice is hereby given that Affidavits of Registration must be sworn to before the County Clerk or his deputies, and that they can not, owing to the provisions of the new Registration Law, be sworn to before any other officer.

The office of the County Clerk will be, until further notice, open for registration from Nine A. M. until Five P. M. each day.

BERKELEY STUDENTS ARE READY FOR STANFORD.

Intercollegiate Contest is Attracting Much Attention—Smallpox Breaks Out Again at Dwight Way.

BERKELEY, April 9.—With little more than a week intervening between the dual field day with Stanford, the University athletes are hard at work. There is little chance of any new athletes developing in the short space of time, but the old ones are performing so credibly that the adherents of the Blue and Gold have little doubt of the outcome.

Under the guidance of Trainer Christie the track team has been brought into superb condition and are in a fit condition to render a good account of themselves when the supreme effort is demanded.

Powell, the fast hurdler has regained his previous good form and is taking the sticks in fine shape. His stride is quick and his manner of taking the hurdles is neat, and those who have been watching his work say that it will require better time than sixteen seconds to take the high hurdles away from him.

Cheek's hurdling has been so fast this season, that the 'Varsity adherents expect him to place in the high hurdles and win in the law. In the interclass championship field-day he tried the coast record by running the 220 hurdles in 26 flat. He has been training consistently and has shown constant improvement, and many are sanguine that he will establish a new record when the final test comes.

Cheek's usefulness does not cease with the hurdles. In the high jump he has been doing very clever work and seems entitled to a place in the inter-collegiate. He has been doing 5 feet, 8 inches in practice with considerable ease, and will probably go higher in competition.

Cooley, last year's champion is gradually rounding to his last year's form and will probably jump 5 feet 10 inches, which is hardly up to his last year's performance.

Service in the half mile has been training faithfully and is in condition to repeat his performance of 1:56.

Redewill in the mile seems certain of winning the event and establishing a new record in the event for the Coast.

Track Captain Hussey is performing well in practice and will probably do over 23 feet if called upon to do so in the dual meet.

Plaw and Cadogan the two champions in the weights and sprints are out every day and are doing fast work.

Hardy ever does Plaw fall below 170 feet in the hammer throw. This means a new world's record in the field day if he repeats the performance in competition. Cadogan is almost certain in doing one hundred yards in ten seconds or better in competition. Abadie will be a close second.

Wilcox is approaching the 11 foot mark in the pole vault. He has done 10.7 in competition this year and will probably be able to better this before April 11th arrives.

On the whole the athletes of the University are confident that an easy victory awaits them in the meet with Stanford and the laurels await them in the East.

COLLEGE BALL TOSSERS ARE VERY CAREFUL.

BERKELEY, April 9.—As Manager Harris' ball-tossers are engaged in solving problems in the League and as the 'Varsity nine do not wish to use up a pitcher before the next intercollegiate game there will be no meeting of the two nines this week. Several teams have invited the 'Varsity to cross bats, but Trainer Christie and Manager Decoto have refused all proposals, as they do not wish to take the chance of disabling any of the men with the championship so near at hand.

Saturday's game will be called at 2 o'clock and will determine whether the 'Varsity team shall be proclaimed the winner or whether Stanford will be given another chance at the pennant.

The players are taking good care of themselves. Every evening an hour's exercise on the diamond is indulged in, but no hard playing is undergone.

The suggestion of a northern trip has been taken up with considerable enthusiasm.

If the players themselves are desirous of making the trip the faculty will undoubtedly give its consent.

SMALLPOX REAPPEARS AT DWIGHT WAY STATION.

BERKELEY, April 9.—Another case of smallpox has been reported at Dwight Way. Robert Agee having been stricken with the disease. Health Officer Payne ordered his residence placed in quarantine.

ARE PREPARING FOR THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The Commencement Committee is having a map made of the Ben Wood Amphitheater, where the graduating exercises will be held. If the weather is rainy the exercises will be held in Harmon Gymnasium.

FREE LIBRARY WILL CLOSE ON SUNDAY NIGHTS.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The Berkeley Free Library will hereafter be closed on Sunday evenings. This action was taken, says Librarian Moore, to conform with the rules of other libraries of the State.

SOPHOMORE CIRCUS WILL HAVE NOVEL FEATURES.

BERKELEY, April 9.—Arrangements for the Sophomore Circus to be given on the University campus after next Saturday's baseball game are nearly complete.

A challenge, which yet is unaccepted, is that of four Chinese, who wish to test the skill of four Japanese in wrestling and in a tug-of-war.

A mammoth street parade will precede the circus, which commences at 3 o'clock.

The proceeds of the circus will go to the Eastern track team.

SOCIAL CLUB TO MEET.

BERKELEY, April 9.—The Sheel Social Club will hold its regular meeting next Monday night. Many prominent people will be present.

LONG TALK IS OF NO AVAIL

Fred McKnight, who says his true name is Henry Merrick, was found guilty by Judge Smith on a charge of drunkenness.

Merrick resides in San Francisco and last Saturday night applied at the police station to be taken care of, say he was drunk.

Merrick is a man of good appearance, and made a long talk to the effect that he was ill, but the evidence of the jail officials convinced Judge Smith that his story was not to be believed and Merrick was accordingly sentenced to pay a fine of $6 or serve three days in the City Jail.

HOW TO RAISE A BOY IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Mrs. Kate B. M'Intosh, Who Will Marry Tomorrow Afternoon, Delivers a Striking Address at the Teachers' Institute.

At the meeting of the Teachers' Institute in Hamilton Hall, a number of addresses are being made today. At a recent session many spoke on the subject, "What a Pupil Should be Able to do on Graduation From the Grammar School." Among the interesting talks was one by Mrs. Kate McIntosh, principal of a Fruitvale school. Mrs. McIntosh will be married tomorrow afternoon to W. S. Palmer, Division Superintendent at the Oakland Mole.

Mrs. McIntosh spoke as follows:

"Trusting you will pardon the digressions, as I have chosen to begin with the pupil from the start and lead up to the graduation point. I shall first select the boy, considering him from three points of view, viz., the physical, the moral and the mental.

"That the two latter may be of high order, it is essential that the first be excellent; therefore one moment of the allotted five as to how that shall be accomplished, presuming the boy's natural qualifications to be normal.

THE TINY CLUB.

"The tiny lad of six, fresh from play, brimful of noise and animal spirit, unaccustomed to restraint, to concentration of thought and attention, is ushered into a class-room, filled with lads and lasses as tiny and frightened as himself, and is given his little cage, in the form of a desk. That desk is well fitted to him; the class-room is ventilated according to the very latest improved methods; a sweet-faced teacher smiles at him from her position in the front, and he assumes his first responsibilities. The 'Course of Study' confines him to four hours of work; work that compels him to control, not only his baby impulses and desires, but his muscles and physical wants.

"At this early stage he should be taught first of all to carry himself well; to get the proper poise of head and spring of back, and to keep his knees from rounding too often. He must learn how to walk at all times; not with the sidelong gait of inturned toes, resulting from over-caution as to tread, but with ease and firmness; his arms falling easily and naturally to his sides, unattracted by luring pockets. This can be accomplished by constant drill only and by making the subject one of first consideration in the course of work.

RUN IN SUNSHINE.

"He should be given short recesses in the forenoon during the first two years of his school life; not the usual calisthenic drill, but a run in the sunshine; a general relaxation from the necessary restraint of the class-room, that the round-shouldered, drooping, tired result may be averted.

SCHOOL DISCIPLINE.

"Nothing for school discipline and physical training is more effective than military drill. It teaches control of muscles, control of nerves, and obedience. It should begin the first year of the boy's school life and continue on to the very end.

The child who has unconsciously learned, through constant drill and careful direction of its teacher and superior officers to control its body, has just as unconsciously but surely learned to control its nerves and will.

SECOND YEAR.

"During the second year he should be taught the simplest principles of self-government; he should learn to respect the rights of his fellow and shoulder his own faults; he should learn through contact with the higher military officers of his school—boys chosen by the school and elected to their positions by ballot, having by careful attention to duties earned the same—he should learn courtesy, the old-time courtesy that springs from within, ever producing the true gentleman, and one of the most valuable essentials of his life-fitting—one that sweetens the lives of his teachers, his girl companions and his mother.

SELF GOVERNMENT.

"This work of self government should leave unnecessary all forms of corporal punishment, thereby developing in the boy a sense of truth and manhood. A whipped boy is a savage—a dangerous creature, could one peep within and get a clear view of the brain workings immediately after such outrage.

CLASS CONVENTIONS.

"During the third and fourth years he should study Parliamentary law in real class conventions, wherein all matters of class business and discipline should be discussed and settled; a boy chairman, elected by the class, presiding; the teacher, a directing, suggestive influence, hovering near.

"This line of work continued on through all the grades, fits the boy when he graduates from grammar school for the subsequent responsibilities of an American citizen, one having a clear conception of civil government, a practical knowledge of self-government, and a love of country and respect for its laws.

"Such a boy has sympathy for the weak parent, who, through over-indulgence, has lost control of his child and excuses the sin by calling this the 'Children's Age.

NO REPROACH.

"Such a boy is a reproach to the instructor, who as guardian or teacher, places himself on a pedestal and commands selfishly.

"Such a boy has absorbed sufficient of mathematics to fit him for the more complicated and real estimates of business life; has read such books as have inspired him to follow the example of noble lives. Can write freely, in good, plain hand writing English compositions, showing a thorough knowledge of grammatical art and a broad scope of thought. Can sketch, reproducing simple landscape memories and familiar objects; can measure and combine lines with such accuracy as to design border decorations and simple architectural plans.

"Can read aloud clearly and intelligently with good phonetic and artistic expression in the Assembly hall or by the fireside.

"Can spell well, because of close and careful drill in phonetics and much copying during the first three years of his school life; especially as laid down in the Ward method of Rational work. He has in his memory a connected chain, composed of the most important links, in the History of his own County and her relations with Foreign Powers.

WHAT HE MUST KNOW.

"Knows the internal and external structure of his body and the relations of one to the other. Also some important laws for keeping them in good condition. Thinks rapidly and expresses himself freely and with dignity when called upon in public, because of his training in his Government meetings.

"Enjoys music, and sings because life is young and his heart is glad; guards with care a bird's-eye view of the entire globe, with its land, high and low; its waters long and broad, fresh and salt; its countries and cities their commerce and the mediums thereof; the atmosphere surrounding it, with its kaleidoscopic changes and the general causes for the same; what lies beneath the great globe surface and its value to man.

"All this the boy should possess and with it a wholesome admiration and respect for his sisters, girl companions and teachers. An earnest and demonstrative love for his mother, and firmly secured within his inner soul the knowledge that he is now a man, in the service of humanity and of his country.

AS TO THE GIRL.

"Now as to the girl. She should have what training the boy has had, without any exception, till she reaches her sixth school year; then she should be fitted for womanhood.

"The course of study as to subject matter need not be altered, but more time should be allowed that she may learn the use of a needle and thimble; that she may have her thoughts turned towards the achievement of domestic success, leaving to the boy his work, his ambitions, his successes, paid for in their full value, while she, thorough as he, in all the prescribed branches, has absorbed in her woman nature the greatest of all womanly accomplishments, that of home-making.

MUSICALE AT THE KIRK HOME WAS A SUCCESS.

It Was Given For the Benefit of St. Anthony's Church.

MANY PEOPLE WERE IN ATTENDANCE.

Sociability, good cheer and music were the features which characterized the levee which was held last night at the home of Mrs. O. C. Kirk, 981 Fifth avenue, and netted a comfortable sum for St. Anthony's Church in East Oakland, in whose behalf the function was given.

The program, the purpose in view and the hospitality of Mrs. Kirk conduced to a large attendance, nearly all the members of which were mutual acquaintances.

Mrs. Kirk was assisted in receiving by her daughters, the Misses Loretta and Katherine Kirk. The home had been transformed into a bower of ferns and roses, the varied and grateful perfume of which pervaded the apartments. Refreshments were provided and liberally dispensed between the numbers on the program, and the tete-a-tetes which were in continual occurrence throughout the evening.

A source of revenue which was not apparent last night, but which will be noticeable when the returns come in, was the sale of a number of tickets which were held by people who were unable to attend in person.

The program was made up with discriminating taste and the performers were selected from among the most talented on both sides of the bay. The selections and performers were as follows:

Piano duet, by Miss Josie Nesbitt and Miss Corea; song, "My Laddie," by Miss E. Canty; viola solo by Miss C. Graves; song, "A Dream," by Joe Rosborough and by special request the singer rendered "Bells of St. Mary," with excellent effect; soprano solo, "Magnetic Waltz," by Miss Alice Gregory; violin duet, Miss Hazel Hogan and Miss C. Graves; song, "Parla," by Miss L. Cavalli.

Miss Jessie Nesbitt and Miss May Feneron were the accompanists. All of the performers received encores, to which they responded.

After the musical features, the evening's pleasures were brought to a close with a hop in which the younger people joined.

Among those present were: Mrs. Ryle, Miss Porter, Mrs. and Miss McNamara, Mrs. Ryan, Miss Magee, Mrs. Vane, Miss Minnie Nolan, Miss Carr, Miss Lynch, Mrs. and Miss Gregory, Miss Kelley, Miss Kern, Mrs. Stetson, Mrs. and Miss Graves, Mrs. M. O'Connor, Miss Stevens, Miss Nellie Peter, Miss T. Oliver, Miss Loretta Moran, Miss Margaret Christie, Miss M. Nolan, Miss Minnie Nolan, Miss Rose Mulgrew, Mrs. Porter, Miss Moffitt, Miss May and Hazel Hogan, Joseph Rosborough, Harry Beaton, Jack Halligan, Wm. Dent, Joseph Harrington, Martin Ulrichs, Chas. Mulgrew and others.

ADMINISTRATOR WANTS COURTS TO DECIDE

A TECHNICAL POINT INVOLVED IN THE GARCIA CASE.

The suit which has been brought by the county against Administrator Rogers of the estate of the late Mrs. Ignacia Garcia for the purpose of condemning a road through the estate of the deceased in Brooklyn Township has not been occasioned by hostile opposition on the part of Rogers. The latter however, has not felt that he was empowered to deed away the property required for the roadway through the estate in question. Neither were attorneys able to assure him that he might make such a grant without fear of consequences.

The suit in question will, therefore, it is believed, shed light on a point which has not yet been adjudicated in this country. Personally Mr. Rogers has no objection to the opening of the road and will obey the order of the court in the premises.

PERKINS MAKES STRONG PLEA FOR EXCLUSION.

Senator From Oakland Answers Questions of His Colleagues.

CHINESE SAILORS ON OUR SHIPS.

Senator George C. Perkins was heard in the Senate yesterday on the Chinese Exclusion Bill. The following shows the discussion in the Senate:

Mr. Fairbanks—Something has been said as to the inability to secure American seamen for the trans-Pacific service. I should like to have the Senator, if he can, give us some information on that subject.

Mr. Perkins—The best answer I think I can make to the question is that there are a number of steamship companies running vessels out of San Francisco, employing a large number of sailors, firemen and coal-passers, which do not employ Chinese. I have myself for thirty years been connected with a steamship company employing from 1,500 to 2,000 men most of the time, and we never have employed, to my knowledge, a Chinese during that period. As to vessels running into the tropics, all of the United States transports now engaged in the service, plying between San Francisco and the Orient, the Philippine Islands and Japan, have white coal-passers, white stokers and white firemen. The whole crews are Caucasian. The ships plying to Central America from San Francisco and to the coast of Mexico, and German ships running down the coast of Central America to South America, all employ white firemen and white coal passers and white deck hands and sailors. The ships of the Oceanic Steamship Company, one of which runs every two weeks to New Zealand and Australia, run to Honolulu, across the equator and through the tropics—they all employ white men. The steamers running from San Francisco to Samoa and the Fiji Islands also employ all white men. It is the same with vessels of the navy. I have been creditably informed by the Firemens Union of San Francisco that there are plenty of men to fill these positions. The question is one of wages. I believe it is worth something to be an American citizen. It is worth a great deal. It is worth a great deal to have the right to fly the Stars and Stripes at the peak, and our ships plying out of San Francisco or New York to foreign ports have certain rights and privileges which foreign ships do not. An American ship sailing from San Francisco may carry freight and passengers to Honolulu, to the Philippine Islands, and continue on her voyage to Japan and China.

Mr. Gallinger—The Senator says it is worth something to be an American citizen. Will the Senator kindly inform the Senate what proportion of the sailors whom he says are of Caucasian blood on the ships that sail from San Francisco are American citizens?

Mr. Perkins—In the coasting trade it amounts to about 60 per cent.

Mr. Gallinger—How about the foreign trade?

Mr. Perkins—In the foreign trade it is less than 50 per cent. Some 40 odd per cent.

Mr. Gallinger—So that half of these men are not American citizens?

Mr. Perkins—They are all capable of becoming American citizens. Those people make good American citizens in time. If they are not American citizens, their children surely are, and they have the pride and honor that attaches to it. I believe in the building up of the American merchant marine. I believe the best way is to encourage the American sailor. I would make his an honorable vocation, as it is, and when it is only a question of dollars and cents, I would give the preference all the time to the American citizen, or the one who is capable of becoming an American citizen, sooner than I would a Chinese.

WEALTH COMES TO A FORMER OAKLAND LADY.

Mrs. Ella Heim Falls Heir to Many Million Dollars.

CASE FORTUNE NOW TO BE DISTRIBUTED.

Good fortune has come to a former Oakland lady, the news of which will be almost as much appreciated by her friends as it is by herself. The lady is Mrs. Ella M. Heim, who possesses, in Oakland and vicinity, a large acquaintance which was formed during a residence here of several years.

Mrs. Heim, some years ago, purchased the former home place of Judge E. M. Gibson near the Contra Costa line, and resided there for a time and entertained in a very liberal manner, and her hospitality was reciprocated by a large circle of admirers in various parts of the county. She is now a resident of the Mission in San Francisco, where she is engaged in building several large structures for commercial purposes, and where the good news has come to here that she is one of a few fortunate people who have fallen heir to an estate valued at $80,000,000. This good fortune comes through the distribution of the estate of Mrs. Heim's great grandfather, Leonard Case of Cleveland, who died in 1889. A host of claimants immediately clamored for a share of the vast estate, but it is understood that it has been awarded to only nine people, whose right to the property has been established. Mrs. Heim is a great granddaughter of the decedent, her mother having been Mrs. Isabella Case Chaney, a favorite granddaughter of the deceased. The news of her good fortune has been wired to Mrs. Heim by her only brother, who is in St. Louis, and who has advised her to go East to acquire her new wealth. Mrs. Heim, irrespective of her heirship to the Case millions, is possessed of a liberal fortune, the investment of which she is superintending with rare business acumen and success.
